ALL THESE CHANGES

There's a new name on our masthead this month, but it belongs to a familiar face. Erin DeCaprio, who was Erin Gregory until her recent marriage to Bob DeCaprio, also assumed the title of managing editor for both this magazine and our sister publication, Satellite ORBIT. That sounds like an extraordinary job for one person, but Erin is an extraordinary editor. Her organizational sense, knowledge of grammar and punctuation and exceptional eye for detail are talents that a magazine as complex as this one can't live without. (Is it okay that I ended that sentence with a preposition, Mrs. D?)

Aside from her editing skills, Erin is the only person I know who can translate Vergil from the original Latin and appreciate the musical stylings of Roy Orbison. This, for me, is no dubious distinction. I liked Latin so much that I took four years of it in high school and one year in college. But Erin, can you sing "Oh, Pretty Woman" in Latin?

And I want to welcome to our editorial staff Cameron McGaughy, our new assistant managing editor. Cameron comes to us from the Radio-Television News Directors Association. I knew he would fit in well here when, in his job interview, he expressed a profound admiration for the acting of Montgomery Clift.

Speaking of classic filmmaking, in June, American Movie Classics ran its annual Film Preservation Festival, an admirable effort to raise money for institutions like the Library of Congress who preserve our film heritage. Among the highlights was a rare widescreen airing of Apocalypse Now. I programmed my VCR to tape it, but the next day, to my horror, I discovered that my tape ran out well before the film ended.

It turns out that AMC ran so many promotional announcements for the festival that the 11:30 p.m. ET showing of Francis Ford Coppola's masterpiece started 13 minutes late. (A followup screening, listed to begin at 2 a.m. ET, must have started even later.) This was an unfortunate delay, especially for a late-night showing that I suspect many people like me were taping to watch later.

Hooray to AMC for running the festival. And boo to them for not putting more "air" in their schedule to allow for such a delay.

If you'd like to offer hoorays or boos about anything in the magazine, write to me at Satellite DIRECT, 8330 Boone Blvd., Suite 600, Vienna, VA 22182. LEONARD MALTIN ON MOVIES

TOO HOT TO HANDLE

Lolita, the movie about obsessive love that no Hollywood studio would touch, finally makes its American debut—on TV.

Who ever dreamed that we would be able to see on television a film considered too controversial to be shown in theaters? Yet that is exactly what's about to happen, as Showtime (ch. 920) presents the American debut of Adrian Lyne's new production of Lolita, starring Jeremy Irons, Melanie Griffith, Frank Langella and Dominique Swain in the title role. (The film airs August 2 at 9 p.m. ET.)

The film, shot in late 1995 and early 1996, made its European debut in 1997; it was a big hit in Italy. But American distributors have shied away from the film because of its reputation—or rather, the very connotation of the movie's title. Vladimir Nabokov coined a name which (to his surprise, I'm sure) has become part of our language—even for people who have never read his notorious 1958 novel.

Lolita, for those who don't know, is about a middle-aged man who develops an obsessive sexual interest in a 12-year-old girl. It was hot stuff when Stanley Kubrick filmed the novel in 1962, with James Mason as Humbert Humbert, the professor wracked with obsession; Shelley Winters as Charlotte Haze, his landlady and the mother of his love interest; Peter Sellers as Claire Quilty, the mysterious man who comes to rival Humbert for Lolita's affections; and newcomer Sue Lyon in the title role. But with today's greater awareness of sexual crimes and the scourge of child pornography, a new version of Lolita—which was always on the perimeter of good taste—is a veritable mine field in the war between political correctness and artistic expression.

The girl can't help it: Dominique Swain plays fiction's most famous nymphet, and (above, right) Jeremy Irons is her smitten suitor.

Showtime finally broke the U.S. embargo by buying domestic rights to the film. The "new" Lolita, directed by the Englishman responsible for Nine 1/2 Weeks and Fatal Attraction, features a largely British cast, was written by Stephen Schiff, an American journalist and critic making his screenwriting debut, and was filmed in France, Louisiana, California, Texas and North Carolina. As they say in the '90s, think global!

So let's get down to business: How is it?

Excellent. In fact, it may be superior to the Kubrick film. Kubrick is legendarily cold as ice; he was helped enormously by his cast, including the superb Mason, the warm-blooded Winters and the hilarious Sellers, who added a dimension of humor to that film that cannot be equaled. But Sellers' contributions were reportedly his own, and the script, while credited to Nabokov, was apparently rewritten and was not, strictly speaking, his vision.

The new film broadens and deepens the relationship between Professor Humbert and Lolita. Most importantly, we get inside Humbert's head during the first scenes of the film. A flashback explains how a childhood loss stunted his emotional maturation. Also, a telling piece of first-person narration explains how someone of his proclivities could single out a nymphet from a line of girls—even if the girl herself didn't realize that she had this "power" within her.

Irons is, of course, the ideal successor to Mason in the role of Humbert, and he wrings every drop of humor, melancholy, passion and madness out of Schiff's script. Swain (she played John Travolta's and Joan Allen's daughter in Face/Off) is startlingly good as Lolita—so good that she doesn't seem to be acting at all. To achieve such naturalness in a character as complicated as this is little short of a miracle. Griffith, as Lolita's mom-on-the-make, and Langella, as Humbert's cool, distant rival, have much less screen time but make every scene count.

Is Lolita more explicit than the '62 film, which had to bow to censorship constraints of the time? Of course it is, but not in the ways you might imagine. Lolita is not about nudity, or even so much about sex. It's about obsession. So while there are some discreetly filmed scenes of passion between the two leading characters, they are not the moments that linger in my mind days after viewing the film.

I think of the scene in which Irons angles a front-porch swing to sneak a peek at the young girl dancing with reckless abandon in her living room, or Swain using her newfound stranglehold on Irons while he tries to concentrate on driving. I think of the double entendre humor as Irons arrives at Griffith's New England home and of the character's descent into madness by story's end.

It's a riveting, adult motion picture—one of the very few I've seen this year that earns both of those adjectives—and one that deserves to be called a work of art. It's not for everyone but, then, it never was. ■

ULEE'S GOLD

GRADE B+

August 14 at 8 p.m. ET on Cinemax (ch. 930).

W (1997, Drama, R) Peter Fonda, Patricia Richardson

Nearly 30 years after he played that stoned rebel "Captain America" in 1969's ode to the counterculture, Easy Rider, Peter Fonda awoke from a long career snooze to play the role of his life: an upstanding, widowed Florida beekeeper trying to protect his family from lowlife associates of his imprisoned son. Fonda earned a Golden Globe award and an Oscar nomination for his portrayal of Ulee Jackson, a man living in a shell after his Vietnam experiences and wife's subsequent death. Having inherited his son's two daughters, Ulee is hardly pleased that their mother is living under partial duress with his son's unindicted partners in crime. They offer to release her if Ulee will help them locate the swamp-concealed stash from the robbery for which his son is serving time. Home Improvement's Patricia Richardson makes a strong impression as Ulee's neighbor. Director Victor Nunez displays the same kind of sure touch for Florida locations that he did in his independent productions Ruby in Paradise (1993) and A Flash of Green (1985). The movie is an emotionally honest low-ebber, with a satisfying wrapup—and a satisfying rekindling of Fonda's career.

JOHN BRAMLEY/THE KOBAL COLLECTION

Honey of a role: Peter Fonda.

REEL FACTS

• Fonda's image as a 1960s' counterculture icon was molded by only three movies during that decade: The Wild Angels (1966) and The Trip (1967), both directed by Roger Corman; and Easy Rider (1969), directed by Dennis Hopper.

CHASING AMY

GRADE B-

August 18 at 10:45 p.m. ET on Starz! (ch. 225).

I (1997, Comedy, R) Ben Affleck, Joey Lauren Adams, Jason Lee

This uneven but provocative slice of sass was billed as part three of writer-director Kevin Smith's "New Jersey Trilogy"—its antecedents being Clerks (praised but perhaps overrated) and Mallrats (critically reviled but underrated). Title notwithstanding, this comedy's central character (Joey Lauren Adams) is actually named Alyssa. She is a lesbian (with a hetero past) who totally captivates the co-creator (Ben Affleck) of a comic book. Meanwhile, his colleague (Jason Lee) makes crude remarks about Alyssa's sexual proclivities. The movie may be trying to have it both ways by frowning on Lee's attitudes while reveling in the raw cleverness of his diatribes. But there are brilliant scenes (check out the explosive argument in the stands at a hockey game), and Adams gives one of last year's most spectacular performances. ■

LORENZO BEVILAQUA/THE KOBAL COLLECTION

Triple play: Affleck, Adams, Lee.

REEL FACTS

• Adams has yet to find a showcase to match her role here, but she did have a memorable smaller part. She played the waitress whom angel John Travolta picks up in Michael, one of that fantasy's best scenes.

GOOD WILL HUNTING GRADE B+

Premieres August 21.

(1997, Drama, R) Matt Damon, Robin Williams, Minnie Driver, Ben Affleck, Stellan Skarsgard

Boston brooding: Damon and Williams.

ARTHUR GRACE/THE KOBAL COLLECTION

Last November, Matt Damon looked like a burgeoning star in John Grisham's The Rainmaker, but credit this December followup about blue-collar/Ivy League tension with putting him over definitively with the public. Oscar nominee Damon even co-wrote Will's Oscar-winning screenplay with featured player and real-life pal Ben Affleck. This is an original drama that centers on a South Boston kid (Damon) who is given a chance for success when a professor at MIT, where Damon works as a janitor, discovers his aptitude for advanced mathematics. The movie's other Oscar went to Robin Williams for his performance as a therapist with demons of his own. Also nominated were director Gus Van Sant and actress Minnie Driver.

TICKETS & CRITICS

BOX OFFICE: $136.4 million

CRITICS' SCORECARD: 34 positive, 2 negative, 6 mixed.

• Steven Spielberg landed some box office insurance when he signed Damon for Saving Private Ryan before Hunting was released.

WAG THE DOG GRADE B-

Premieres August 14.

(1997, Satire, R) Dustin Hoffman, Robert De Niro, Anne Heche, Woody Harrelson, Denis Leary

What about Bob?: Hoffman spoofs Evans.

P.F. CARUSO/THE KOBAL COLLECTION

This black comedy, released last December, got a box office gift in January that's still giving. Its script deals with a U.S. president forced to divert public interest in his Oval Office escapade with a young girl. Dustin Hoffman plays a smooth Hollywood producer hired by a White House consultant (Robert De Niro) and staffer (Anne Heche) to stage a phony war with Albania for broadcast consumption. Hoffman's performance, said to have been inspired by producer Robert Evans, so amused industry insiders that it earned him an Oscar nomination. ■

TICKETS & CRITICS

BOX OFFICE: $43 million

CRITICS' SCORECARD: 29 positive, 3 negative, 4 mixed.

• Hoffman and Levinson also teamed up on last spring's flop, Sphere. However, their previous collaboration won them Oscars: 1988's Rain Man.

The fourth and final Major tournament on the men's golf tour originates from the Sahalle Country Club in Redmond, Washington. (This is the first Major ever played at Sahalle.) Davis Love III will try to become the first repeat winner of this championship since 1937, when FDR was in the White House and Denny Shute was the toast of the land with back-to-back titles. Shute is not the household name that his contemporaries Gene Sarazen and Sam Snead are (they were each three-time PGA winners). But Shute does have two more PGA Championships than Greg Norman, Tom Kite and Fred Couples—the top three all-time in tour earnings. And none of the new American stars—Justin Leonard, David Duval, Phil Mickelson and Tiger Woods—have won it, either. (Leonard did finish second last year at Wingfoot.) Is this the year one of them breaks through?

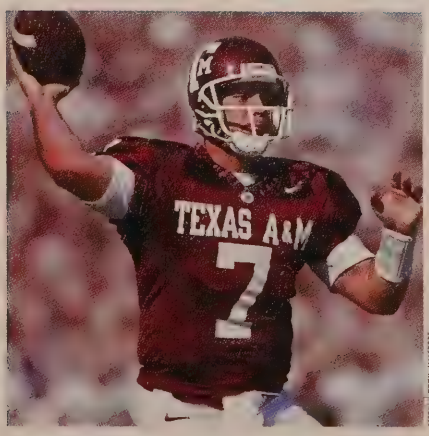
NCAA FOOTBALL: FLORIDA STATE VS. TEXAS A&M

GRADE A-

August 31 at 8 p.m. ET on ABC (chs. 295 & 296).



STEPHEN DUNN/ALLSPORT

Branndon Stewart of Texas A&M.

Texas A&M returns 14 starters from the 9-4 team that ended last season with a heartbreaking 29-23 defeat to UCLA in the Cotton Bowl. The offense, led by senior quarterback Branndon Stewart, is deep and talented at the skill positions but a little green on the offensive line. Still, coach R.C. Slocum must think his Aggies are going to be pretty good this year. You don't schedule Florida State otherwise. FSU lost nine players in the NFL Draft, but so what? Blessed with a wealth of talent on both sides of the ball (12 starters, after all, are back), Bobby Bowden's Seminoles (11-1 in '97) can score from anywhere at anytime. ■

FAN SIDELINES

- At spring practice this year, the Seminoles' defense kayoed its own QB: Dan Kendra was trying to elude linebacker Bradley Jennings when he tore an anterior cruciate ligament. His replacement, 26-year-old sophomore Chris Weinke, spent six years in the Toronto Blue Jays organization.

THE BABY DANCE

August 23 at 9 p.m. ET on Showtime (ch. 920).

Laura Dern stars in this gripping drama about two disparate families who come together in an emotional struggle. Wanda LeFauve (Dern) and her unemployed husband (Richard Lineback) live in a cramped trailer with four kids and another on the way. With no money or room for another child, Wanda responds to an ad from a couple (Stockard Channing, Peter Riegert) seeking to adopt a healthy baby. But when Wanda gives birth, both families face a life-altering decision. Writer Jane Anderson makes her directorial debut with this film based on her critically acclaimed play of the same name. Lineback reprises his role from the stage version, where he received two Dramalogue Awards for his performance. Fans of Dern will recall that she played a similar role in Citizen Ruth, in which she portrayed a pregnant woman who became a pawn in the debate over the abortion issue.

Four is definitely enough for Richard Lineback and Laura Dern.

BACKSTAGE:

- The film is executive produced by Jodie Foster, who will give birth to her first child next month.

JERRY SEINFELD LIVE: I'M TELLING YOU FOR THE LAST TIME...

August 9 at 9 p.m. ET on HBO (ch. 910).

He's back in business already, baby. Jerry Seinfeld, who pulled the plug on his top-rated sitcom in May (much to the dismay of millions of devoted Seinfeld viewers and many NBC executives, who made careers out of riding the Seinfeld wave of success), returns to television and his stand-up roots with a live performance from New York's Broadhurst Theatre. This performance, which, as the title suggests, will mark the last time Jerry performs many of his "classic" routines, also marks the culmination of an international tour that kicked off in June and included stops in Melbourne and Sydney, Australia; Stockholm, Sweden; and London. Though it will be weird to see Seinfeld sans Julia Louis-Dreyfus, Jason Alexander and Michael Richards, HBO expects that his brief return to the airwaves might be one of the most anticipated TV moments of the summer. And you know what? It's probably true. The man is a classic, an icon, a true giant in our business, yada yada yada.

Golden boy: Jerry Seinfeld.

BACKSTAGE:

- This is Seinfeld's first comedy special for HBO since 1987's Jerry Seinfeld: Stand-Up Confidential. He made his HBO debut in 1981 on The Sixth Annual Young Comedians Special.

BABE RUTH GRADE A

August 16 at 8 p.m. ET on HBO (ch. 910).

By the time this program airs, Mark McGwire or Ken Griffey Jr. will be closing in on Roger Maris' seemingly invincible single-season home-run mark (61)—you remember, the one that was once held by the Sultan of Swat, George Herman Ruth. HBO commemorates the 50th anniversary of the Babe's death with a one-hour tribute to one of the greatest athletes and characters of the 20th century. Like Frank Sinatra, the Babe was no saint, but he could sure make that bat sing. Narrated by Liev Schreiber (Scream 2), the documentary will include rare footage, home movies and interviews with Julia Ruth Stevens, Ruth's adopted daughter and only living member of his immediate family; longtime Yankee great Tommy Henrich; and writers Studs Terkel, Pete Hamill and the late Shirley Povich. ■

Homer odyssey: HBO tells Babe's story.

BACKSTAGE:

• During his 22-year career, Ruth posted a .342 lifetime batting average, a .690 slugging percentage (still a record) and hit 714 home runs. The latter mark was surpassed by Atlanta's Hank Aaron on April 8, 1974.

SPECIAL REPORT

VIEWERS' CHOICE

Satellite DIRECT gives you the chance to vote for the channels you want added to DSS.

HOW DO WE LOVE DSS? LET US COUNT the ways: Stunning digital picture and sound quality. Unmatched selection of channels. Dozens of pay-per-view movies daily. Sports packages to satisfy the most ravenous fan's appetite. →

BY JAY HYLSKY

DSS is TV nirvana. But there is one DSS feature our readers never tire of asking us about: channel selection. You would think with more than 220 channels to choose from, DSS viewers would be satisfied. But as the TV channel lineup becomes more fragmented, with specialty channels popping up almost every day, viewers break into special interest groups, demanding channels to suit their individual tastes and needs.

The good news is that DIRECTV and U.S. Satellite Broadcasting (USSB) are considering new channels all the time. In fact, on August 1, DIRECTV will add ZDTV to its Total Choice roster on channel 273. ZDTV is a 24-hour network that airs computer and Internet-related programs. And ESPN-West, a new regional sports network from Southern California, will be added to DIRECTV when it launches this October.

Still, there's room for improvement.

One hole in the DSS lineup is international networks like a Spanish-language channel. This spring, DIRECTV announced plans for a new service, or "platform," of multicultural and ethnic channels. At press time, the launch was scheduled for July. Although the new platform uses the same DSS receiver, it requires a new, slightly larger dish because the channels are transmitted from a different satellite.

But what about channels with broader appeal? The DSS channel lineup still has no UPN station such as WSBK from Boston. WSBK carries the popular Star Trek: Voyager series, which has yet to be shown on any DSS channel, as well as other popular syndicated shows including Seinfeld, Cheers and *M*A*S*H*. Among the other channels Satellite DIRECT readers frequently request are Fox's variety service fX, GoodLife TV (previously Nostalgia TV), BBC America, Ovation and NASA TV.

"DIRECTV talks to just about everyone out there," says Bob Marsocci, DIRECTV's senior manager of communications. "That does not mean we are going to add them."

USSB has the capacity to add new channels but had not finalized any new additions as of press time. "USSB could add a couple more channels," says Mary Pat Ryan, executive vice president of programming and marketing at USSB. Any new channels added to USSB will likely focus on movies since movie services make up almost all of USSB's channel lineup. "We have conducted extensive market research of the entire DSS universe, not just USSB subscribers, on [their interest in] the new, exciting offerings from HBO and Cinemax," adds Ryan. She's referring to ActionMAX and ThrillerMAX, two new channels from Cinemax that launched on June 1, and the planned HBO Comedy and HBO Zone, which will start by next March. USSB carries the other HBO and Cinemax services as well as the Showtime movie channels.

DIRECTV and USSB spend a lot of time and effort trying to decide which channels they should add. So we've decided to help them out.

For the first time, you, the DSS owner, will have the opportunity to vote for the channel or channels you want added to DSS! Simply fill out the ballot below and mail it to Satellite DIRECT. We will report the results of the poll in our November issue and, more importantly, forward them to DIRECTV and USSB. We cannot guarantee that DIRECTV or USSB will add the channels that get the most votes.

On the following pages is an alphabetical list of the 20 most frequently requested channels not currently on DSS. We've provided a category for each channel and a brief summary of what programming it offers. For your convenience, we've included each channel's Web address (if it has one) so you can get more details about its offerings. This list contains only existing channels and not those planned to launch, such as HBO Zone, Lifetime Movie Network or PaxNet.

The ballot contains our 20 Most Wanted, plus space for write-in candidates. And, in case you think that DSS already has enough channels, we've given you a place to indicate that.

GOOD TV IS BOOMING

Think being a TV critic is all fun? Just sitting on a couch and watching TV all day long?

Well, think again. First of all, I'm not allowed to have a couch in my office. My editor says it might set a bad example for other employees. Second, the day of 500 channels is rapidly approaching, and with my luck, I'll be reviewing stuff like The Miniature Golf Network and The Accounting Channel from now until the millennium.

That's why it's such a pleasure to discover GoodLife TV, the only network dedicated to the Baby Boomer and post-Baby Boomer audience, with an entertaining mix of original programs and favorite classics. No sex, no violence, just good TV. Check it out:

Cafe DuArt - Impressionist Louise DuArt stars in this one-of-a-kind show featuring comedy, music, and a boatload of dead-on impressions. She's a human Xerox machine... without the paper.

The TV Book Shop - Ron Nessen hosts this lively program that keeps you current on all the top - shelf literary works and proves behind every great book there's a writer with a story to tell.

More Money with The Dolans - The financial planning call-in show featuring nationally-known experts Ken and Daria Dolan. Don't miss this rare opportunity to watch a married couple discussing money matters without resorting to screaming.

Ballroom DanceSport - The dance sensation that is sweeping the nation! A weekly Latin and ballroom dance competition featuring some of the greatest dancers in the world. That music - those moves - and those costumes - whew! So hot, it might melt your remote.

Classic TV - Come aboard as GoodLife brings back some of your favorite Boomer classics like The Love Boat, The Rockford Files, and The Streets of San Francisco.

Flea Market Movie - Don't let the title fool you, these flicks are priceless! Collectibles expert Christopher Kent appraises antiques and flea market finds while hosting GoodLife TV's daily movie.

The Bull & The Bear - Invest in some popcorn while you watch Llewellyn King and Linda Gasparello, "The Siskel and Ebert of Wall Street," give their opinions on mutual funds and market investment. I give 'em two enthusiastic thumbs up!

If you don't really need a fifth home shopping channel or an eighth 24-hour all-sports network, call DIRECTV at 1-800-DIRECTV and tell them you want something good — GoodLife TV Network!

☑ SPORTS. A full plate of international sports, including soccer, rugby, baseball and Australian Rules football, is on the menu of this service from Fox Sports Net. It's for fans who believe that American games just aren't enough. (www.foxsports.com/world)

Fox-West

☑ VARIETY. A Fox station from a major Pacific Coast city, like KTTV from Los Angeles, could provide Fox shows such as The X-Files and Ally McBeal at their regular times for DSS viewers in the West. →

Ready for a comeback? The popular Travel Channel, which offers programs like Lonely Planet with host Justine Shapiro (left), was once on DSS and might return.

fX

☑ VARIETY. Fox's variety "cable" service features rerun episodes of popular TV series like The X-Files and NYPD Blue as well as Major League Baseball and college football and basketball. It is currently available exclusively to cable systems. (www.fxnetworks.com)

GoodLife TV

☑ VARIETY. This service was formerly named Nostalgia TV and offered mostly reruns of classic TV shows. Now it has broadened its programming to include eight hours a day of original entertainment and information offerings. (www.goodtv.com)

Knowledge TV

☑ VARIETY. This channel offers a wide range of educational, technology and health programs. (www.knowledgetv.com)

KTLA

☑ VARIETY. This WB Network affiliate superstation airs variety series, sports (including Dodgers baseball), movies and news from the L.A. area. (www.ktla.com)

NASA TV

☑ NEWS AND INFORMATION. NASA's channel provides live coverage of U.S. Space Shuttle missions and space-related scientific programming. A surprising number of readers have contacted us about this one. (www.nasa.gov/ntv)

GoodLife TV

☑ VARIETY. If you're looking for cultural programming such as performing arts, documentaries and music specials, this could be your destination. It would supplement PBS and Bravo. (www.ovationtv.com)

ThrillerMAX

☑ MOVIES. Cinemax's horror and suspense movie channel would be the first choice for fans of films that keep them on the edge of their seats. (www.cinemax.com)

Travel Channel

☑ VARIETY. Everything for the savvy traveler is on this channel, which once was on DIRECTV. Since it departed, it was purchased by Discovery Networks, so a new deal might be struck. (www.discovery.com)

UPN

☑ VARIETY. A UPN station such as WSBK from Boston or WWOR from New York would provide UPN's programming lineup, including Star Trek: Voyager. (www.upn.com and www.upn38.com)

WPIX

☑ VARIETY. This popular WB Network affiliate superstation from New York airs movies, series and sports (Yankees baseball). (www.wpix.com) ■

SQUEEZE PLAY

So you want more channels. Are you willing to sacrifice your DSS picture quality to get them?

DIRECTV and U.S. Satellite Broadcasting (USSB) claim they have the capacity to add more channels to the DSS lineup without sacrificing DSS' remarkable picture quality. When TV Land, Nickelodeon-East, Lifetime, Comedy Central, VH1, MTV and M2 switched from USSB to DIRECTV on March 10, USSB's channel capacity increased. DIRECTV maintains that it has been saving channel capacity for channel additions. So the chances of picture quality being sacrificed for new channels is very slim, but it is possible on some channels. Here's why:

DSS channels are digitized and compressed by a digital system before they are transmitted to the three DSS satellites. The satellites have a limited amount of space, called bandwidth, to relay signals back to your dish on Earth. Engineers at USSB and DIRECTV are always trying to improve the digital video compression system to squeeze as many channels as possible into the bandwidth. One way this is done is by giving some channels that do not show much motion, like home shopping, less bandwidth and giving other "premium" channels, such as pay-per-view and movie services, enough bandwidth to provide razor-sharp video. That's why you may notice a better picture on a pay-per-view movie than on a basic channel where picture quality is not as imperative.

The addition of one, two, even three new channels at once probably won't affect picture quality. But if a programmer adds a dozen or more channels at one time, picture quality on some channels could be affected. This is why DIRECTV or USSB usually adds one or two channels at a time. After a few months, the engineers tweak the digital video compression technology to allow a few more channel additions.

Will there come a time when DIRECTV and USSB cannot fit any more channels on DSS? Probably. But it's also possible to add a fourth satellite to the DSS constellation to increase bandwidth. However, neither DIRECTV nor USSB have announced any plans to add a fourth satellite in the near future. —JH

THE RAT PACK: THEY DID IT

Their Way!

In HBO's original movie about the early '60s heyday of The Rat Pack, Frank Sinatra and his pals have the world on a string. Thirty years and Sinatra's recent death haven't changed that. • BY MIKI TURNER

THEY WERE SOME DIRTY RATS. Pungent with power. Filthy with talent. And possessors of an acrid wit used routinely to justify their often abhorrent social behavior and defend their unofficial motto:

Sex, booze and swing, baby!

Francis Albert Sinatra, the nefarious and benevolent messiah of the Rat Pack and beyond, was the dirtiest of them all. He was loved and loathed, cheered and jeered, embraced and feared. And since his death three months ago, his hold on the popular culture has become perhaps even more powerful. Much of the world still weeps for Frank, fearing that we'll never again see the likes of Old Blue Eyes.

As Shawn Levy, author of Rat Pack Confidential, writes: "It was Frank's world and we just lived in it."

This month HBO (ch. 910) will attempt to show us what it was like to exist in Sinatra's terrestrial sphere for a brief time with its original production of the Rat Pack, a behind-the-scenes look at four fellas and a pal who were the coolest of the cool in their heyday. And with all due respect to the dearly departed members of the Pack, director Rob Cohen (Dragon: The Bruce Lee Story, Daylight) says there won't be any sugar coating.

"This isn't a movie about the mythologies," Cohen says. "This is a movie about the nervous systems."

Ray Liotta: "I hate that [Sinatra will] never see it."

The film stars Ray Liotta as Sinatra, Joe Mantegna as Dean Martin, Don Cheadle as Sammy Davis Jr., Angus MacFadyen as Peter Lawford and Bobby Slayton as Joey Bishop. Comedian Tom Dreeson, who opened for Sinatra for 13 years and was a pallbearer at his funeral, appears as himself. Deborah Kara Unger plays Ava Gardner, who was married to Sinatra from 1951 to 1957.

The Rat Pack opens in 1980 with Sinatra reflecting on the good ol' days as he waits in the wings before a performance in Atlantic City. The story then flashes back to 1958 and spans the events of five years, during which time the Pack appeared in several films, including Ocean's Eleven, a Las Vegas-set heist drama which is arguably their signature film. Also covered is Sinatra's friendship with President John F. Kennedy (played by William Petersen) and their split over Frank's association with organized crime, which forced Kennedy's brother-in-law Lawford out of the Pack.

Unlike the 1992 network film Sinatra, which was produced by Frank's daughter Tina, the Sinatra family had nothing to do with this project. It completed shooting a month before he died on May 14. An HBO spokesperson said that Sinatra's death hasn't affected the content of the film or moved up its air date, which had already been scheduled for August. (It will air August 22 at 9 p.m. ET.)

The fact that The Chairman will never get a chance to praise or pan the film is something that disappoints Liotta, who grew up in Union Township, New Jersey, not far from Sinatra's hometown of Hoboken.

"I hate that he'll never see it," says Liotta. "I think it would have surprised him. When you think of the Rat Pack, you think of a bunch of guys singing, dancing and drinking, but there's so much more to this movie.

"Hopefully this will appeal to the MTV generation. They'll see one of the first true superstars. I was hoping it would have moved Frank and that he would have given us an A for effort."

Sinatra actually inherited the Rat Pack moniker from Humphrey Bogart and his friends after Bogart's death in 1958. The Bogie

Bunch, which included his wife Lauren Bacall, Judy Garland, agent Swifty Lazar and restaurateur Mike Romanoff, were friends more into dinner parties at Romanoff's and card games at Garland's than appearing together in public.

The Sinatra clan was much more visible and influential. They shared a love for song, dance, comedy, swizzle sticks, good times and bad broads. They ruled Vegas in the late '50s and early '60s and even had their own code lingo. They appeared in corny movies like Ocean's Eleven and Robin and the Seven Hoods and even used their power to help JFK win the presidency, making public appearances and doing benefits. Plus, their antics were great fodder for gossip columnists.

So what made these hip cats so hip? And why are people still intrigued with the Rat Pack?

"When I was growing up in Chicago, we loved the Rat Pack because these guys were from neighborhoods like we came from, rose to the pinnacle and did it their way," says Dreeson, who was also a consultant on the film. "That was not a William Morris package. They wanted to be together."

Adds Levy: "There's a continuing appeal with an older audience that's still alive. That's never gone away. The other thing is that it was probably the last time in pop culture where there were adult people at center stage with grownup habits and appetites that common people could emulate."

Liotta, who was born in 1955, six days after Sinatra turned 40, never met Sinatra and says he researched the role by talking with Dreeson, Sinatra friends and wives of Sinatra's songwriters. "By him not writing an autobiography," Liotta says, "you leave yourself open to a lot of, 'Maybe it happened this way and maybe it happened that way.' You get the nice kind of version that his daughter Nancy wrote, then you go as far as the Kitty Kelley kind of thing. [Kelley wrote the notoriously negative 1986 Sinatra bio, His Way.] You just try to put it all together. What we tried to do was get behind the icon. Every day was a challenge trying to get to that level."

Like Liotta, Mantegna never met Martin. "Just playing Dean was the most challenging thing for me," says Mantegna, who did talk with Martin's kids about the project. "It's just a big responsibility. My feeling, whether I was trying to mimic him or trying to do a perfect impersonation of the guy, was that I wanted to at least capture hopefully the essence of who he was.

THE KOBAL COLLECTION

Ocean's Eleven*, the definitive 1960 Rat Pack movie, about a Vegas heist.

Pack men: (above) Angus MacFayden, Ray Liotta, Don Cheadle and Joe Mantegna.

"I think it's a noble portrayal of these guys. I think we show some of the blemishes that haven't been documented before. I called the Martin children because I wanted them to know that we were intent on being sensitive and truthful."

Cheadle faced a bigger challenge with Davis. Despite his tremendous talent, Davis was the sad owner of a tormented spirit. He was one of the biggest entertainers in the world, but that didn't matter to Jim Crow.

"There was a lot of emotional stuff to deal with," says Cheadle, "which was why for a long time, I didn't take the film." He was concerned that the script didn't show that Sammy was in on the joke when Frank and Dean "clowned" on him. "I did not want him to be portrayed as an idiot."

Cheadle says Davis' membership in the Rat Pack helped him combat the negativity and racism he faced daily. "He went from 80 percent hatred to, when he became a member of the Rat Pack, 80 percent love. And he could shut out that 20 percent being maligned because he's making 80 grand a week, sleeping with everybody he wants to and he's rolling with Dean and Frank."

Certainly, Sinatra's death, Levy's book and the plethora of other material on the Pack has done nothing to diminish the public's seemingly insatiable appetite for celebrity dish. And, if Liotta is right, The Rat Pack could capture a new, younger audience drawn to their unique appeal.

"They had arrogant humility," says Dreeson. "That's what was so special about them. They were arrogant enough to believe they could do anything they wanted and humble enough to appreciate the hell out of it when it happened."

It seems an accurate assessment. They were men who pretty much just did things their way. Sure, there was a lot of infeuding—it mostly began and ended with Sinatra—but there was also a genuine kinship among these men of different ethnic backgrounds, as well as an empowered indifference to the rest of the world.

"I think the core group of Frank, Dean and Sammy were real friends," says Levy. "They certainly stayed together for a long time afterward. They just sort of formed their own little society."

It may not have been a great society, but it's one whose appeal has clearly survived its main members. And that appeal shows no signs of waning. ■

THE LOWDOWN ON HIGH DEFINITION

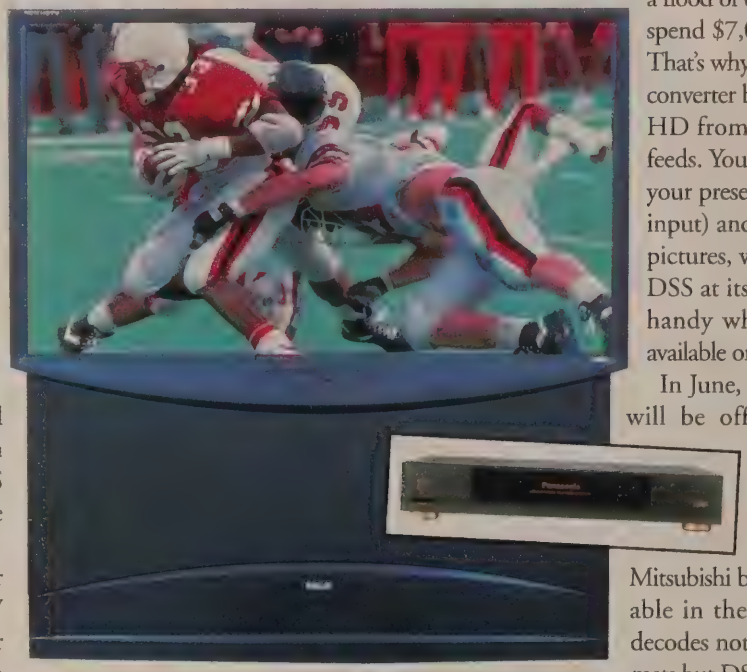
As details about HDTV's launch come into focus, DSS owners clearly are sitting pretty. By David Elrich

TELEVISION IS ABOUT TO ENTER THE AGE of high definition (HD). This fall, local stations in the top 10 cities will begin broadcasting some shows in HD; by November 1999, the top 30 will be on board. (This will be a slow process; only a few hours of programming a week will be in HD.) For DSS owners, the news is much better: No matter where they live, they will be able to enjoy high definition pictures. The question for them becomes, is this ride is going to be worth the price of admission?

I have witnessed demonstrations of HDTV for more than 10 years and can tell you the picture and sound experience is simply spectacular. Remember the first time you saw DSS and compared it to your cable system? HDTV delivers a more pronounced improvement. DIRECTV-delivered HDTV pictures are more than four times better than current DSS video. (Yes, you can measure the improvement.)

That's the good news. Now for a cold dash of reality. DIRECTV will be beaming HD pictures later this year to any DSS owner with the right equipment. However, the original plan for receiving those pictures—connecting a converter box to the wideband data port on the back of your current DSS receiver—is no longer valid. You will have to buy a new HD-DSS receiver or purchase a new television with it already built in. And you will have to get a new, larger dish.

Later this year, Thomson Consumer Electronics, which produces the RCA, ProScan and GE brands, will unveil two rear projection, widescreen HDTVs: the 61-inch ProScan PS61000 ($7,999) and the 55-inch RCA P55000 ($6,999). Then late in 1999, Thomson will offer 34- and 38-inch widescreen direct view TVs. All of these sets are true high definition: They accept all 18 HDTV formats (broadcasters will be beaming HD signals in more than one format); they offer a 16x9-proportioned rectangular screen and receive Dolby Digital surround sound. As a bonus, they have built-in DSS tuners so you can get HD broadcasts from DIRECTV or USSB.



High def hardware: RCA's 55-inch high definition TV and (inset) Panasonic's converter box.

HDTV picture quality is measured in pixels (picture elements) rather than the more common lines of horizontal resolution. The more pixels, the finer the image. All of the sets we've described can display up to 2.07 million pixels. DIRECTV plans to broadcast a 1.32 million pixel image. This compares to about 337,000 pixels for your current DSS picture.

To receive HD pictures, you will also need an elliptical dish that is approximately 36x22 inches with a dual feedhorn since the HD broadcasts originate from a different satellite than those currently beaming your DSS channels. The dish price has not been determined.

DIRECTV said it will start broadcasting high definition programming as soon as HD sets are available. DIRECTV hasn't announced if it will charge more for HD programs, nor has it given specifics as to what it will broadcast. However, HBO (distributed through USSB, which has not commented publicly on HDTV) and Discovery Channel (via DIRECTV) have stated their intention to broadcast some programming in HD.

TV manufacturers are not anticipating a flood of consumers rushing out to spend $7,000 for a new television. That's why they are building set-top converter boxes (tuners) that receive HD from off-air and/or satellite feeds. You can connect this box to your present TV (if it has the right input) and get standard definition pictures, which are comparable to DSS at its best. This will come in handy when a local station not available on DSS broadcasts in HD.

In June, RCA announced that it will be offering a $700 set-top converter box, a real bargain compared to the $1,699 Panansonic model or the $3,000 Mitsubishi box. The DTC-100, available in the first quarter of 1999, decodes not only all 18 HDTV formats but DSS as well. You have to use it with a new digital TV-ready set such as an RCA multimedia monitor (around $2,700 for a 36-inch edition).

Several other companies—including Hitachi, Mitsubishi, Sharp, Toshiba and Panasonic—plan to introduce HDTVs later this year or early in 1999.

Again, these steps are only the beginning of the HDTV journey. But as a DSS owner, you have more options than any other TV viewer when it comes to taking those steps. ■

WHO YA GONNA CALL?

Where to Turn for Answers to Some of DSS' Thornier Questions. By Art Durbano

DSS HAS BECOME THE MOST SUCCESSFUL new consumer electronics product in history—with more than a million new customers signing up every year—in part because it's really quite easy to install, use and enjoy. Still, problems arise from time to time. We at Satellite DIRECT hear about them, and we'd like to use this space to tell you where you can call for help when unforeseen problems crop up.

Q. My system is set up, but there's no programming. Now what?

A. DSS programming is available only by subscription. In other words, you have to order it. If you somehow left the store without ordering it, call DIRECTV at (800) DIRECTV (347-3288) and USSB at (800) 204-USSB (204-8772). Our How to Order page (last right-hand page in the magazine) has details on program packages.

Q. I bought a DSS secondhand from a neighbor who is moving away. How do I go about getting programming?

A. Very gingerly. DIRECTV advises that, first of all, you make sure your neighbor doesn't have a huge outstanding balance in unpaid-for pay-per-view movies. By assuming his account, you could be liable for those charges. Next, have your neighbor call DIRECTV and USSB, if applicable, deactivate and remove the receiver's access card. You should then call DIRECTV or USSB and order a new access card. They will charge you $150, but upon receipt of the old card, will credit your account $115. The new card will arrive by overnight courier. When it does, insert it into the receiver and call either service to order programming.

Q. I live in an apartment. My windows have no southern exposure. Can I get DSS?

A. Maybe not tomorrow, but soon. DIRECTV and USSB have teamed up to market DSS aggressively to residents of so-called multidwelling units (MDUs). An MDU system requires you to purchase the DSS receiver only; the dish is purchased by your building management. For more information on DSS installation, apartment dwellers should call—or better yet, have their property management company call—DIRECTV at (800) 383-4388 and USSB at (800) 327-8772.

Q. My homeowners association is demanding I take down my dish. Who can help me?

A. In 1996, the Federal Communications Commission issued a sweeping order prohibiting any local government ordinance, private covenant or homeowners association rule that "unreasonably" prevents the use of a satellite dish. There are, however, limited restrictions. Homeowners associations may demand that a dish be set up out of view of the street, and as long as you get an acceptable picture, you must comply. Certain "uniquely historical" neighborhoods may also prohibit DSS.

In either case, whenever a conflict arises, it is the responsibility of the association trying to enforce the restriction to prove its

Most Often Asked...

Q. I've just purchased a DSS system, but I can't set it up. Where do I turn?

A. Any reasonably handy person can install DSS all by him or herself; for the reasonably unhandy, there are professionals who do this kind of thing. Check with your retailer. If you are doing it yourself, make sure you carefully read your owners manual before you hit the panic button. For additional assistance on hardware and installation, you can call these manufacturers' toll-free numbers:

validity. If you feel a homeowners association (or a local government) is trying to enforce an invalid restriction, call the FCC at (202) 418-0163 or contact them via their Web site: "www.fcc.gov".

Q. I have a complaint about a particular programming service. How do I get it off my chest?

A. For a direct response, write to the offending channel yourself. Satellite DIRECT frequently features a Where to Write page, located at the back of the programming section. Or you can check out our Web site at "www.directmagazine.com" and click on the Hot Links page. In both places you'll find addresses, phone numbers and, where available, E-mail addresses for the most popular channels and networks. (The Web site has links to most programmers.)

Q. The pro-football season starts soon, and I've signed up for NFL Sunday Ticket. Will I be hassled by blackouts?

A. NFL blackouts only affect you if you live in an NFL team's local broadcast area. And they only apply to home games that do not sell out 72 hours prior to kickoff. If you have questions about blackouts or any other details on any of DIRECTV's other sports packages, call (800) GET-SPORTS (438-7767).

Q. Who do I contact if I have problems with my bill?

A. If you feel you have been incorrectly billed (i.e., perhaps billed twice for a pay-per-view movie), direct your inquiries to DIRECTV at (800) DIRECTV or to USSB at (800) 204-USSB.

Q. I'm about to watch a pay-per-view movie or event. I need to unlock my Locks & Limits feature and I've forgotten my four-digit passcode. Now what?

A. Call the appropriate customer service number for DIRECTV or USSB. You'll have to provide your account number and verify your address.

Q. How can I get The Jerry Springer Show and Star Trek on my DSS system?

A. Right now, you can't. Neither DIRECTV nor USSB carry a channel that offers these syndicated favorites. Your best recourse: Call DIRECTV and mention it to them. You can also E-mail them at "www.directv.com/misc/feedback.html."

Q. Where can I get the most up-to-date information on new developments in DSS and satellite TV?

A. From us. Satellite DIRECT's Web site ("www.directmagazine.com") features Dishing It Out, a news page with updates every business day. It's also the place to reach us with other DSS questions which we did not discuss here. ■

ELUSIVE CONNECTION

DIRECTV and Microsoft's two-year partnership has yet to yield the mother lode: a connection between DSS and the Net. Here's why. By Cliff Roth

For those of you breathlessly awaiting a DSS-delivered version of WebTV to become available soon, exhale slowly. Although Microsoft (which owns WebTV) is clearly interested in creating such a service (see "A New Wrinkle," Satellite DIRECT, April 1998), neither it nor its partner DIRECTV seems to be in a big rush to consummate the deal.

DIRECTV has been partnered with Microsoft for more than two years in a project called DIRECTV Interactive, but speaking in April at SkyForum, a satellite industry conference held in New York, DIRECTV President Eddy Hartenstein indicated that the next generation of DSS boxes, which will be capable of handling high definition TV channels (HDTV), will not have the long-anticipated interactive service built in.

DAVID JOLY/SIS

"Our vision of the future is primarily a TV-centric one," said Hartenstein. Meaning that—unlike the view held by some computer industry members—television is not just another "application" that runs on a computer. It's a different product, a different viewing/listening experience, and takes place on a different screen.

Part of the problem with introducing a DSS version of WebTV may be the techno-political mine field that surrounds Microsoft. While most people think of WebTV as merely a system for viewing the Internet on TV, it has become much more. WebTV is now vying to become the underlying operating system for next-generation digital cable TV boxes. For Microsoft, cable TV—with some 65 million homes—represents a far bigger and more attractive market than the 8 million homes currently getting satellite TV.

Recently, DIRECTV has shown signs it is paying more attention to its computer-literate audience. In June, it announced it would begin carrying the new ZDTV television network. (It debuts August 1 on channel 273.) ZD stands for Ziff Davis, the publisher of dozens of computer magazines, and its new TV network includes programs that are intended to be viewed while simultaneously accessing its Web site. A jointly issued press release stated that ZDTV will work with DIRECTV "on the development of new interactive content." Neither DIRECTV nor ZDTV would elaborate on what form this content might take.

Also in June, at the DBS Summit in Denver, several participants made promising sounds about DSS and Internet convergence. Pat Ruggieri, marketing manager, digital media products for Sony, alluded to the creation of WebTV Plus software that would integrate DSS into the WebTV Plus system. Jon Toellner, vice president of Satellite Receiver Systems for DIRECTV, said his company is "working on both a PC device and [a] set-top box" and predicted consumers would see "a couple of interactive offerings" within the next year.

DSS owners can get high-speed computer Internet access right now, using the DirecPC system (and DirecDuo, which combines DSS TV and DirecPC in a single-dish antenna). But the two-year-old DirecPC system is showing signs that it's becoming the victim of its own success. There are complaints about the system getting jammed up with too many simultaneous users. Hughes, the company that owns both DSS and DirecPC, has instituted a system that attempts to distribute the bottlenecks fairly, but some users don't think it's fair.

If and when WebTV for DSS ever gets introduced, it may have similar technological constraints. But worrying about what will happen when there are too many users is a moot point if there's no service to use. And right now, WebTV on DSS appears to be one of those great ideas that's technically doable, but requires the cooperation of mega-corporations and industries that each has its own agenda. ■

SATELLITE DIRECT

THE LATEST SCOOP ON YOUR 18-INCH DISH. BY JAY HYLSKY

DSS' NEW SATELLITE

The DSS2 system will offer ethnic channels this summer and HDTV early next year.

The DSS universe is about to expand again. In January, DIRECTV acquired additional satellite capacity on PanAmSat's Galaxy 3R (G3) satellite. The immediate benefit to DSS viewers: a new service platform, dubbed DSS2. Scheduled to begin broadcasting this summer in conjunction with the Ethnic American Broadcasting Company (EABC), DSS2 will offer a package of ethnic and international services.

Another exciting benefit of this new satellite will come within six months when DIRECTV plans to begin broadcasting high definition TV (HDTV) programming on at least two of its channels. Pay-per-view movies such as Titanic (which is scheduled for PPV release in late 1998 or early 1999), sports and special events are the likely candidates for DIRECTV's HDTV channels. See page 24 for more details on HDTV on DSS.

EABC is leasing space on the new satellite from DIRECTV to broadcast a mix of 20 ethnic channels. The first 10 will premiere this summer and include WNMB (Russian), UBN (Ukrainian Broadcasting Network), Ciao TV (Italian), ECom (Chinese Mandarin), ERT (Greek), SET Asia and Network Asia (Asian-Indian Hindi), ESC and Nile TV (Egyptian Arabic) and Viva Cinema (Filipino). G3 will also eventually be used by DIRECTV for a package of Spanish-language channels. Launch dates of that package and the other 10 EABC channels have not been announced.

Because the G3 satellite is located in a slightly different position in the sky from the three existing DSS satellites, you'll need Hughes Network System's DSS2 hardware to receive signals from all four satellites. The HNS DSS2 equipment includes a new DSS2 receiver and a slightly larger, 21-x-36-inch elliptical dish. A basic hardware package will likely be priced under $400.

Subscribers to the EABC package will deal directly with EABC. For more information, call (800) 722-2080.

New international channels on DSS are good news for soccer fans.

DSS PRICE FREEZE

While many cable companies are increasing programming subscription rates, DIRECTV and U.S. Satellite Broadcasting (USSB) have pledged not to raise programming costs. At June's annual DBS Summit held in Denver, Stanley E. Hubbard, president and CEO for USSB, said, "We have not raised prices from the time we started our service four years ago, and we don't intend to introduce price increases." DIRECTV President Eddy Hartenstein also indicated that DIRECTV has no intention of raising its rates this year.

RCA CARD REWARDS

If you're thinking about upgrading or adding to your system with RCA components, consider applying for RCA's MasterCard, with the "Nipper" and "Chipper" mascots pictured on a star-lit background. Cardholders earn one point for each dollar (net transaction) charged on the card. Once you accumulate 2,500 points, you receive a mail-in rebate coupon worth $25. Coupons can then be used at any RCA retailer for purchases of RCA products priced at $100 or more. For more details, call (800) RCA-CARD. ■

DTH DIRECT-TO-HOME CHANNEL NOTES

ZDTV (ch. 273), a 24-hour channel that focuses on computer and Internet technology, launches on DIRECTV on August 1. Beginning in September, ZDTV programming will be listed in the Channel Extra section at the end of each month's regular listings.

KPIX (ch. 291), the CBS-West channel from San Francisco, will end its early primetime hours on September 13. KPIX's primetime CBS programming currently begins daily at 7 p.m. PT (10 p.m. ET). Starting September 14, primetime programming will begin at 8 p.m. PT (11 p.m. ET) Monday through Saturday and at 7 p.m. PT (10 p.m. ET) on Sundays.

New time: CBS' Touched by an Angel.

The NBA and WNBA have renewed their agreements with DIRECTV to deliver the NBA LEAGUE PASS and WNBA SEASON PASS packages for the 1998-99 seasons. The cost for the NBA League Pass is $139 before September 30 and $159 thereafter. NBA League Pass subscribers receive the WNBA Season Pass free. The WNBA Season Pass can be purchased separately for $39.

TODAY'S SD® BEST BETS

NASCAR: BRICKYARD 400 (10 a.m. on ABC, chs. 295 & 296). You just have the feeling that, when the exhaust clears in this year's race for the Winston Cup points title, one of the Big 3—Jeff Gordon, Dale Jarrett or Mark Martin—is going to be the last man running. Today's showcase from the fabled Indianapolis Motor Speedway could do a lot to sort these boys out.

NFL FOOTBALL: PITTSBURGH VS. TAMPA BAY (4 p.m. on ABC, chs. 295 & 296). Two teams with every expectation of still playing come January—Bill Cowher's Steelers and Tony Dungy's Buccaneers—kick off the exhibition season at the annual Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio.

AIR FORCE ONE (5 p.m. on Showtime, ch. 920). Scenery-chewing terrorist Gary Oldman tries to skyjack the First Family and gets a heckuva lot more than he bargains for. Seems the American president in this 1997 crowd-pleaser bears an uncanny resemblance to Indiana Jones. Yes, that is Harrison Ford as our fearless leader, employing his skills as a military veteran to eject Mr. Oldman.

TODAY'S SD® BEST BETS

BIOGRAPHY (5 p.m. on A&E, ch. 240; repeats 4 hours later). A special two-hour edition of the nightly series profiles Steven Spielberg, an insecure youth who grows up to become a decent little director. Spielberg was the child of a broken home, ashamed of his Jewish roots and loaded with neuroses, as we learn here.

LOLITA (6 p.m. on Showtime, ch. 920). Here it is, ladies and gentlemen, the film Hollywood didn't want you to see. It's director Adrian Lyne's $60 million adaptation of the controversial Vladimir Nabokov novel about the barely adolescent girl (Dominique Swain) who becomes a love object for a middle-aged novelist (Jeremy Irons). Lyne couldn't get a distributor for the film in the United States; seems no one wanted a movie with pedophilic overtones. See page 4 for Leonard Maltin's view of the film and its controversy.

WAR & CIVILIZATION (6 p.m. on The Learning Channel, ch. 246; repeats 3 hours later). The origins and evolution of war are tackled in this ambitious eight-part, four-night series that kicks off tonight with "First Blood" (tracing the beginnings of traditional war games to ancient Greece) and "Empires and Armies" (looking back at how China and Rome built their empires and cultures on a foundation of violence). Narrated by Walter Cronkite, the series is based on the work of military historian John Keegan.

TODAY'S SD® BEST BETS

BIOGRAPHY (5 p.m. on A&E, ch. 240; repeats 4 hours later). You've heard the story about the actress who was discovered sitting at a soda fountain. How about this one: Harrison Ford was "discovered" while installing doors at Francis Ford Coppola's and George Lucas' American Zoetrope Studios, where Lucas chose him to play Han Solo in Star Wars. (Actually, Ford had already appeared in a Lucas film, American Graffiti, four years earlier. But when that did nothing to advance his career, he went back to his day job as a carpenter.) Already in his mid-30s when he finally broke through to stardom, Ford seems to have developed a sense of proportion about the movie business and fame. He lives away from the Hollywood spotlight, has stayed out of the tabloids and, rare for a star of his popularity, is never bad-mouthed by his colleagues.

EVENING AT POPS (5 p.m. on PBS, ch. 294; repeats 7 hours later). The Boston Pops, currently under the baton of Keith Lockhart, returns for its 29th season of concerts on PBS. Tonight's show features the cast of the Broadway musical Luis Bravo's Forever Tango. Among the songs performed: "Jalousie," which the Pops and conductor Arthur Fiedler first recorded in 1935 on RCA Victor. It went on to become the first Victor record—and orchestral recording on any label—to sell a million copies. Leslie Caron hosts.

MODERN MARVELS (7 p.m. on The History Channel, ch. 241; repeats 4 hours later). At one time, "Las Vegas Hotels" were just tall buildings with gaudy neon signs out front. Now they're replicas of Egyptian pyramids, ancient Roman forums or the Manhattan skyline. Eleven of the world's 12 largest hotels are currently located in the town that Bugsy Siegel built. Too bad the Rat Pack didn't live long enough to play some of these joints.

WAR & CIVILIZATION (6 p.m. & 7 p.m. on The Learning Channel, ch. 246; repeats 3 hours later). TLC's series on the history of warfare continues with two one-hour installments. "Horse Warriors" rides with Genghis Kahn and Attila the Hun and their hordes, and "Gunpowder" explores the advent of firearms and how they brought down mighty civilizations such as the Aztecs of Mexico.

TODAY'S SD® BEST BETS

BIOGRAPHY (5 p.m. on A&E, ch. 240; repeats 4 hours later). When he first came on the small screen as Dr. Philip Chandler on NBC's St. Elsewhere, you knew you were seeing something special. Denzel Washington is one of few actors to jump quickly and gracefully from television personality to movie star. This episode looks at the very private star, who credits hard work, faith in God and the love of his family for his success. I think he might have a little talent on his side as well.

LOST IN AMERICA (5 p.m. on Cinemax, ch. 930). A high-rolling Los Angeles couple (Albert Brooks and Julie Hagerty) decide to drop out, shunning their six-figure salaries in favor of a Winnebago and the open road. It's Easy Rider meets the Griswalds when their dream of freedom from responsibility is cut short by one very unlucky stop in Las Vegas. This 1985 comedy is vintage Brooks, a hilarious commentary on modern American culture.

RIDDLE OF THE ZODIAC (5 p.m. on The History Channel, ch. 241; repeats 4 hours later). Is astrology just an amusing superstition or the key to unlocking secrets of the universe? The debate is taken up in this special, which looks at the accuracy of astrologers' predictions and whether the stars determine character. I don't believe it, but then again, we Cancers tend to be very cynical.

AFI—100 YEARS 100 MOVIES (7 p.m. on TNT, ch. 212). Chaos and destruction make for great movie drama, but when order is restored at the end of a film, the audience feels a great sense of satisfaction. This installment of TNT's summer-long tribute to the 100 greatest movies of all time, titled "Out of Control," covers the monsters, freaks of nature and just plain egomaniacs who make the movie experience something special.

TODAY'S SD® BEST BETS

MY FAVORITE YEAR (1 p.m. on TCM, ch. 221). A truly funny yarn, set in the early 1950s, about a young TV writer (Mark Linn-Baker) who has the arduous task of babysitting one of his show's upcoming guest stars, who just happens to be a notorious boozer of a playboy. Peter O'Toole is Alan Swann, the visiting lothario from hell. Also starring in this 1982 comedy are Lainie Kazan, Jessica Harper and Joseph Bologna as the show's host, who bears a remarkable resemblance to Sid Caesar. Watch for Titanic's Gloria Stuart as a woman O'Toole cuts a mean rug with in a nightclub. The film marked the directorial debut of actor Richard Benjamin.

COUNTRYFEST '98 (6 p.m. on CBS, ch. 290; repeats 2 hours later on CBS-W, ch. 291). Reba McEntire hosts and performs in this special featuring Clint Black, Brooks & Dunn, Alabama and Wynonna. Countryfest, the third annual multi-artist celebration of country music, was taped at the Nashville Arena.

FACE/OFF (7 p.m. on Cinemax, ch. 930). In this John Woo-directed thriller, John Travolta and Nicolas Cage play a couple of guys with tons of baggage between them. Cage is Castor Troy, a terrorist creep who's trying to eliminate Sean Archer (Travolta), a by-the-book G-man. But Troy misses his mark and snuffs Archer's son instead. You can pretty much guess the rest: Father hunts down son's killer. But this villain has now moved on to crime on a much bigger scale. He and his brother Pollux plan to blow up Los Angeles if their demands for millions of dollars are not met. Things get really freaky when Troy slips into a coma after a shootout. Archer swaps faces with him to go under cover inside the prison where Pollux is being held to find the location of the bomb. Joan Allen plays Travolta's wife and Dominique Swain (Lolita) is their daughter.

TODAY'S SD® BEST BETS

THE PALLBEARER (9:20 a.m. on Starz!, ch. 225). It's The Graduate for the '90s. In this 1996 flick, Friends regular David Schwimmer is tabbed to be a pallbearer at the funeral of a guy from his high school whom he doesn't even remember. Before he knows it, he's all hot and heavy with the dead kid's mom (Barbara Hershey) and chasing a girl (Gwyneth Paltrow) for whom he had a hankering in school. It's messy, but worth seeing for Schwimmer, who happens to be very good.

THE SUNDOWNERS (12:45 p.m. on AMC, ch. 220). You wouldn't think that a film about a sheepherding family in Australia would be a must-see, but it is. A true classic from director Fred Zinnemann, this 1960 drama features a brilliant cast headed by Deborah Kerr, Robert Mitchum, Peter Ustinov, Dina Merrill, Chill Wills (best known as the voice of Francis the Talking Mule) and Glynis Johns. Adapted from the novel by Jon Cleary, this is one of those quietly mesmerizing movies that ropes you in and makes you care. Wool will never seem quite the same again.

BEST OF THE FLINTSTONES (5 p.m. on The Cartoon Network, ch. 247). Toon is running a six-night tribute to the best of Bedrock, and tonight's pair of episodes are "The Twitch" and "The Masquerade Party." Do you even need to know what they're about? No. All that matters is that they will be brilliant because Fred will do something unfathomably stupid, Barney will grunt and laugh, Wilma will scold Fred mercilessly, Betty will appear merely incredulous and life in the Stone Age will seem pretty cool. The Flintstones holds up remarkably well for a show created to be a mere animated version of The Honeymooners.

IN SEARCH OF HISTORY (5 p.m. on The History Channel, ch. 241; repeats 4 hours later). This edition of the series carries the ominous title, "The Boy Who Gave Away the Bomb." It profiles the treasonous Ted Hall, a teenaged scientist who worked on the top-secret Manhattan Project that led to the development of the atomic bombs that decimated Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Hall believed that the A-bomb was too powerful to remain strictly the property of the United States, and he shared more secrets with th Soviets than did the notorious Rosenberg The program details the journalistic effort find and unmask Hall in London.

TELL ABOUT THE SOUTH (7 p.m. on PB ch. 294). This documentary claims to be th first film to describe and dramatize the sto of modern Southern literature, throug dramatizations, commentary and interview It gauges Southern culture through the pris of both white and African American writer paying particular attention to subject matt and style.

THE PEOPLE UNDER THE STAIRS (7:35 p.m on TBS, ch. 259). A particularly creepy ho ror effort from master Wes Craven (who als helmed both Scream films and two from th Nightmare on Elm Street series), this 199 low-budget diversion (biggest name in th cast: a pre-Pulp Fiction Ving Rhames) unsettling as all get-out. Brandon Adams sta as a kid trapped inside the home of a grou of homicidal landlords (aren't they all?). Lik most Craven projects, it mixes black com edy with social messages. In this case, th message seems to be this: Don't ever mak landlords mad, particularly if they want t kill you to begin with. —R

The Official Entry Form must be postmarked by midnight September 24, 1998, and received by midnight October 3, 1998. Your name will be entered into a random drawing. All entries become the exclusive property of CommTek Communications Corporation. No responsibility is assumed by CommTek Communications Corporation for late, lost, misdirected, mutilated, postage-due, defective, altered, forged, incomplete or illegible entries, or entries printed by machine or otherwise mechanically reproduced, all of which are void. Responsibility for receipt of entry rests solely with the entrant. Proof of mailing does not constitute proof of delivery. Limit, one entry per household. All contest entries become the property of sponsor and will not be returned. Entry forms available by mail: send a self-addressed, stamped envelope for receipt by midnight, August 31, 1998 to Satellite DIRECT's August HBO Crossword Puzzle Contest Entry Form Request, 8330 Boone Blvd., Suite 600, Vienna, VA 22182.

3. Prizes: There will be 25 prize winners. Prize: (1) Babe Ruth Key Chain (estimated retail value $4.00).

4. General Conditions. By participating, entrants acknowledge and agree to be bound by these rules and the decision of the judges is final. The winner agrees that the sponsor, CommTek Communications Corporation, HBO and their respective officers, directors, agents and employees will have no liability or responsibility for any injuries, losses, or damages of any kind whatsoever, resulting from the acceptance, possession, or use of any prize once awarded, and they will be held harmless against any claims of liability arising directly or indirectly from the prizes awarded. Prize winners will be required to execute an affidavit of eligibility and liability/publicity release within 10 days of notification attempt or the prize will be forfeited and an alternate winner selected. Prizes are not transferable and may not be exchanged. Taxes, if any are the responsibility of the individual winner. CommTek Communications Corporation reserves the right to substitute any prizes listed with prizes of equal or greater value at its sole discretion. The winner will be selected from a random drawing of eligible entry forms to be held on or around October 15, 1998. The odds of winning depend on the number of eligible entries received. You need not be present to win. Prize winners will be notified by mail. Except where prohibited by law, winners agree to the use of their name, likeness and/or photographs in any promotional activity related to this contest without further compensation. For a list of winners, send a self-addressed stamped envelope to "Winners List — August HBO Crossword Puzzle Contest," 8330 Boone Blvd., Suite 600, Vienna, VA 22182, by October 30, 1998.

TODAY'S SD® BEST BETS

THE GREAT ESCAPE (5 p.m. on TCM, ch. 221). If it ain't the best P.O.W. movie ever made, it's darn near close. James Garner, Steve McQueen, Charles Bronson, and James Coburn make a bid for freedom from Nazi captivity. TCM is offering this classic in a rare widescreen showing.

SPELLBOUND (5 p.m. on Encore 4-Mysteries, ch. 234). Hitchcock meets Freud (in a dark alley) and the result is: Hello, Dali. Head shrinker Ingrid Bergman tries to figure out why Gregory Peck is having such post-modern-looking dreams in this unique mix of romance and suspense from 1945.

BIOGRAPHY (5 p.m. on A&E, ch. 240; repeats 4 hours later). A&E's signature series offers a profile and an appreciation of actor, director, jazz buff and former elected official Clint Eastwood.

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL: ATLANTA AT SAN FRANCISCO (7:30 p.m. on TBS, ch. 259). The Braves begin their longest road trip of the season with a weekend set at the 'Stick (as we oldtimers called ThreeComm Park). The schedule-maker has finally caught up with Greg Maddux & Co.—26 of their next 41 games are away from Turner Field. The question is, Can the rest of the NL catch up with them?

SPACE GHOST COAST TO COAST (8:30 p.m. on The Cartoon Network, ch. 247). This celebrity-interview show, with your loopy host, the Space Ghost, is so bizarre it makes Max Headroom seem like The Today Show. Someone must be watching, though: Tonight's chat-fest is the Ghost's fifth season opener. Among the celebrities with a sense of humor promised for this season are such B-list luminaries as Jim Jarmusch, Kevin Smith and Al Franken. —AD

AFTERGLOW (premiering on DIRECT TICKET Pay-Per-View). Julie Christie is a true rarity among movie stars. Christie looks and performs even better now than she did 32 years ago, when she walked away with the Best Actress Oscar for Darling. So what if Afterglow wasn't praised for its story involving two couples—one older (Christie and Nick Nolte), one younger (Lara Flynn Boyle and Jonny Lee Miller)—who decide to play musical beds? Christie's performance proves she hasn't lost her touch.

BIOGRAPHY (5 p.m. on A&E, ch. 240; repeats 4 hours later). The spotlight is on Steve Rubell, the man who opened Studio 54 in 1977. Writer/director Mark Christopher's 54 (with Mike Myers as Rubell) just opened in theaters, so this entry will feed on pop culture's fascination with the nights of boogie. Rubell grew from a kid in Brooklyn into a man responsible for gathering the "in" crowd, hosting regulars like Andy Warhol, Halston and Liza Minnelli. His club made huge profits—all in cash. But Rubell's subsequent jailing for tax evasion and time in a halfway house aren't the end of the story. By 1986, after opening a hotel and a new club, he was suddenly worth $50 million. Three years later he was also suddenly coping with HIV, which took his life at age 45 in 1989—the delayed end of his fascinating story.

TODAY'S SD® BEST BETS

JERRY SEINFELD: I'M TELLING YOU FOR THE LAST TIME (6 p.m. on HBO, ch. 910). So it's been three months and you're still going through Seinfeld withdrawal, even with those New to You reruns. Here's HBO to the rescue. Jerry returns to his stand-up roots with his first TVcomedy special in 11 years. Seinfeld Live is just that, airing live from New York's Broadhurst Theatre. Seinfeld fans, however, should take heed of the title. It won't be the last time Seinfeld does stand-up (one of the reasons he pulled the plug on his hit NBC sitcom was to return to the stage), but it will be the last time he'll perform some of his classic routines. So catch 'em while you can.

GREAT WHITE: IN SEARCH OF THE GIANTS (7 p.m. on Discovery Channel, ch. 245; repeats 4 hours later). This is one fish you don't want to bump into while snorkeling. A fierce predator, the great white can grow to be as long as 20 feet. However, in recent years, overfishing has severely depleted the population of full-grown great whites. The second night of Discovery's Shark Week may be the one with the highest ratings.

ADDICTED TO LOVE (7 p.m. on Cinemax, ch. 930). A delightful, if somewhat dark, romantic comedy starring Matthew Broderick, Meg Ryan, Tcheky Karyo and Kelly Preston. Dumped by his small-town girlfriend (Preston), Broderick follows her to New York where he hides out in an abandoned building across the street from the flat she shares with her new man (Karyo). Soon he is joined in this demented little adventure by his nemesis' ex-fiancee (Ryan). While Broderick's intentions are harmless (he thinks that Preston will come to her senses and dump Karyo), Ryan wants to exact serious revenge on the man who made her life miserable. The film marks the directorial debut of actor Griffin Dunne (After Hours), whose father, author Dominick Dunne, appears as a restaurant critic in one of the film's funniest scenes. —MT

TODAY'S SD® BEST BETS

ELVIS (3:20 a.m. & 12:30 p.m. on Encore 6-True Stories/Drama, ch. 236). It's August, otherwise known to TV programmers as Elvis Month, when every one of them scrambles to honor the King's departure from this Earth on August 16, 1977. The best Elvis docudrama is this 1979 made-for-TV extravaganza. Kurt Russell does a great job of impersonating Elvis; Ronnie McDowell is the King's singer (a role he also performed in the best film on the subject, This Is Elvis). Shelley Winters is perfect as Gladys, the best mom a rock 'n' roll star ever had. John Carpenter, the man who brought us Halloween and Escape From New York, directed. This film will likely go down as his best work. Thank you. Thank you very much.

EVENING AT POPS (5 p.m. on PBS, ch. 294; repeats 7 hours later). Arlo Guthrie and the Boston Pops? Doing his dad's greatest song, "This Land Is Your Land"? (Anyone out there agree that it should replace "The Star-Spangled Banner" as our national anthem?) Hey, look man, we've all mellowed a bit since the '60s, when such a pairing just wouldn't have been possible.

ZAMBEZI SHARK (6 p.m. on Discovery Channel, ch. 245; repeats 4 hours later). It's August, otherwise known to Discovery Channel programmers as Shark Month. Well, it's really Shark Week that we're knee-deep in, but you get my drift. Tonight, we swim with the "Zambezi Shark" in waters off the coast of South Africa. Z sharks, as the pros in the shark biz call them, are elusive (they can live in both salt and fresh water) and mysterious (they disappear every winter, leaving no forwarding address).

INVESTIGATIVE REPORTS (6 p.m. on A&E, ch. 240; repeats 4 hours later). Have you noticed how many recent international thrillers use Russian organized crime figures as villains? The Russian mob seems to have replaced Arab terrorists as the movie boogeymen of the late 1990s. In "The Russian Mob Goes Global," A&E shows how rampant corruption in both the Russian public and private sector, combined with modern technology that gives any business—legit or otherwise—access to so many points in the world so quickly, has created this horrifying scenario. —TW

HELLO, DARLIN': A TRIBUTE TO CONWAY TWITTY (6 p.m. on TNN, ch. 262; repeats 4 hours later). TNN reprises this tuneful two-hour retrospective on the career of a country legend who actually started out as a pop star. "It's Only Make Believe," his first single, hit No. 1 on the pop chart in June 1958. Seven years later, though, the Mississippi native (born Harold Jenkins) had switched his allegiance to Nashville, where he had more than 30 solo hits, including the classic, "Hello, Darlin'."

AFI—100 YEARS 100 MOVIES (7 p.m. & 8 p.m. on TNT, ch. 212). This series of documentaries based on the American Film Institute's 100 Greatest Movies list is now up to episode 8, "Anti-Heroes." Say this for the AFI list: There are plenty of titles on it with anti-heroes, from Will Munny (in Unforgiven, No. 98) to Michael Corleone (in The Godfather and Godfather II, Nos. 3 and 32) to every movie on the list with Jack Nicholson in it.

HITCHHIKING VIETNAM: LETTERS FROM THE TRAIL (7 p.m. on PBS, ch. 294; repeats 7 hours later). I wouldn't recommend doing it, but then Karin Muller didn't ask me. This inquisitive young American just went ahead and thumbed her way from one end of post-war Vietnam to the other. Her seven-month trek—on foot, by motorbike, bus, train, boat and water buffalo—makes for some amazing and thought-provoking television.

INHERIT THE WIND (7:30 p.m. on TCM, ch. 221). Experience the Scopes "monkey trial," as imagined by playwrights Jerome Lawrence and Robert E. Lee and re-imagined by producer-director Stanley Kramer, who had the good sense to cast this 1960 courtroom drama absolutely up to the hilt. Spencer Tracy won a Best Actor nomination as the Clarence Darrow character, and Fredric March is even better in the (thankless) William Jennings Bryan role. —AD

TODAY'S SD® BEST BETS

THE FLY (9 a.m. on TNT, ch. 212). Not the 1958 original but the 1986 remake that sported much more pus and mutated gore. Director David Cronenberg didn't leave much to the imagination, but that's okay, because Jeff Goldblum looks terrific with pinchers and antennae. He's actually awfully good playing the off-kilter scientist who evolves into a human fly after a genetic experiment goes awry. Geena Davis is also sharp as Goldblum's devoted girlfriend, so devoted that she decides to look the other way when her honey begins spewing disgusting fluids. That, ladies and gentlemen, is true love.

THE WORLD OF NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC (5 p.m. on PBS, ch. 294; repeats 6 hours later). This ambitious hour is called "Mysteries of Mankind," and its agenda is to unearth the origins of human beings on the planet. This area of study has only been in existence since 1942, when Dr. Raymond Dart determined that the bones of a primitive apelike child were, indeed, related to humans. And as we learn here, chimpanzees are indeed our closest relatives, with a 99 percent genetic match.

AMERICAN JUSTICE (6 p.m. on A&E, ch. 240; repeats 4 hours later). In "Spouse Killers," we're presented with three painstaking case studies of spousal murders. (None of them involve a certain former football star.) The cases are revisited through interviews with various government officials, lawyers and shrinks, revealing that passion is indeed the leading motive in such cases. The other is financial gain. But one case examined here, that of Charlene Brundage, was of a different sort. She convinced New York Governor George Pataki to overturn her 20-year conviction for murdering her husband on the grounds that he abused her.

THE CAINE MUTINY (7:30 p.m. on TCM, ch. 221). A brilliant 1954 adaptation of Herman Wouk's Pulitzer Prize-winning novel about the mutiny led by a pair of Naval officers (Van Johnson, Robert Francis) against the megalomaniacal, delusional Captain Queeg (phenomenal work from Humphrey Bogart). The magnificent cast also includes Jose Ferrer, Lee Marvin, Fred MacMurray, E.G. Marshall, Claude Akins and Tom Tully. Edward Dmytryk directed. —RR

TODAY'S SD® BEST BETS

NOBODY'S FOOL (11:35 a.m. on Flix, ch. 929). Many critics thought Paul Newman might win his second Oscar for his 1994 portrayal of a small-town man down on his luck, but once again, Newman had to settle for critical acclaim. As a man stunted by his own inadequacies, Newman's healing begins after he bonds with his grown son and young grandson. Newman is supported by a wonderful cast that includes Melanie Griffith, Dylan Walsh and Bruce Willis as a friendly irritant.

DOC HOLLYWOOD (1 p.m. on HBO, ch. 910). Michael J. Fox plays a yuppie plastic surgeon en route to a great job in Beverly Hills. Then he gets sidetracked in a small town in South Carolina when his spiffy sports car sputters out. A very predictable but somewhat entertaining plot ensues when Fox, who falls in love with one of the locals, realizes that money and success aren't the keys to his happiness.

BIOGRAPHY (5 p.m. on A&E, ch. 240; repeats 4 hours later). Rex Harrison, one of the most debonair actors ever to grace the silver screen, is featured in this edition of Biography. Born in 1908, Harrison made his first stage appearance at 14 and continued working in theater and film up until three weeks before his death in 1990. Harrison is best known for his Oscar-winning role as Henry Higgins in My Fair Lady opposite Audrey Hepburn's Eliza Doolittle. It was a role he had played to great acclaim on Broadway with Julie Andrews as his leading lady. The program includes interviews with family, friends and colleagues, including Charlton Heston.

NORTH BY NORTHWEST (7:30 p.m. on TCM, ch. 221). One of Alfred Hitchcock's best thrillers, with a healthy dose of comic relief. An affable ad salesman (Cary Grant) is the target of both spies and the authorities, who all believe he is a double agent and track him all over the country. Before the script was written, Hitchcock told screenwriter Ernest Lehamn that he wanted to do a chase scene over Mt. Rushmore; thus, the film's memorable climax. Eva Marie Saint, James Mason, Martin Landau, Leo G. Carroll and Jessie Royce Landis head the supporting cast. —MT

TODAY'S SD® BEST BETS

WAG THE DOG (premiering on DIRECT TICKET Pay-Per-View). It's a rare satire that skewers both Hollywood and Washington insiders, so give director Barry Levinson comedy points for spoofing just about everyone in both towns. For more, check out Mike Clark's review on page 8.

THE AVENGERS FIRST LOOK (4:30 p.m. on HBO, ch. 910). Since I was named after a TV character (Laura Petrie of The Dick Van Dyke Show), it should come as no surprise that my daughter Emma would also be named as such. Emma Peel represented style and intrigue and was one of television's first working woman role models. That's why I'm looking forward to the screen version of the TV classic The Avengers, starring Ralph Fiennes as John Steed and Uma Thurman as Mrs. Peel. The film opens today, but if you can't make it to the multiplex, this show offers a sneak peek.

ULEE'S GOLD (5 p.m. on Cinemax, ch. 930). What has been dubbed Peter Fonda's comeback role is really the first performance to truly showcase the talent of one Hollywood's favored sons. Fonda stars as a Vietnam vet forced to deal with the unfinished business left to him by his incarcerated son. Fonda earned a Best Actor nod from the Academy, and some thought he should have won. An added surprise is Home Improvement's Patricia Richardson as Fonda's friend and neighbor.

ADAM'S RIB (7 p.m. on TCM, ch. 221). What a great idea for a movie: married attorneys on opposing sides of a case. And with the lawyers played by Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepburn, that great idea achieves near perfection. Thanks to director George Cukor and his writers (the husband and wife team of Ruth Gordon and Garson Kanin), this sprightly battle of the sexes has lost none of its wit and relevance over the years. —LF

TODAY'S SD® BEST BETS

SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER (5 p.m. on TNT, ch. 212). Well, you can tell by the way John Travolta uses his walk in this seminal disco classic from 1977 that he's a something-or-other. Frankly, the Bee Gees' lyrics are buried so deeply in the mix you can't understand a thing they're squeaking. But so what? We know Travolta's more than a woman; or maybe Karen Lynn Gorney's more than a woman. Either way, you should be dancing. Night Fever. Night Fe-ver. Catch it.

NFL FOOTBALL: SAN FRANCISCO VS. SEATTLE (5 p.m. on CBS, chs., 290 & 291). This is the night the suits at CBS have been waiting for since 1993. It cost the shareholders $500 million a year, but the NFL is back on CBS, beginning tonight with a practice game from Vancouver. The Seahawks' new secret weapon, Ricky Watters, will play at least the first quarter.

THE AVENGERS: THE JOURNEY BACK (6 p.m. on A&E, ch. 240; repeats 4 hours later). The original John Steed, Patrick Macnee, hosts this retrospective on the hip, British spy series that was bottled in Bond before 007 ever arrived on the scene. The Avengers, with Macnee and Honor Blackman in the title roles, debuted in January 1961. Since then, there have been multiple cast changes (Diana Rigg and Linda Thorson following Blackman), multiple incarnations (including a London play and a South African radio series) and worldwide popularity, which figures to continue after yesterday's release of the Avengers movie. —AD

TODAY'S SD® BEST BETS

BABE RUTH (5 p.m. on HBO, ch. 910). A documentary look at The Babe, the Sultan of Swat, the guy who could eat 15 hot dogs and drink 15 Cokes at a single sitting. And don't even bring up women and booze. Yes, he had hefty appetites. And he wasn't a bad ballplayer, either, as this hour underscores via rare film footage, home movies and interviews with his peers as well as baseball historians. The word is that the program is loaded with nifty anecdotes, stuff not even uncovered by Ken Burns in his legendary public TV Baseball series.

TIBOR RUDAS PRESENTS CARRERAS, DOMINGO, PAVAROTTI WITH LEVINE—THE THREE TENORS LIVE IN CONCERT—PARIS (5 p.m. on PBS, ch. 294). It's not exactly live, but everything else in that rather long title is true. The Three Tenors' third go-round took place, like the first two, at the conclusion of the World Cup last month. It was not available, however, for a live national satellite feed, so this is its DSS premiere. You can expect to see a few pledge breaks, as PBS has found this quadrennial event to be one of its top fund-raisers.

BIOGRAPHY (5 p.m. on A&E, ch. 240; repeats 4 hours later). It's a two-hour homage to Walter Cronkite, who was the most trusted man in America while holding down the anchor chair on The CBS Evening News in the 1960s and '70s, and he remains the standard against which all other newsmen are measured. "Walter Cronkite: Eyewitness to History" profiles the man behind the calm, authoritarian tones as well as the journalist who guided us through the Vietnam War, Watergate, the race for the moon and the rise of Ronald Reagan. We hear from Dan Rather, Andy Rooney, Henry Kissinger and Art Buchwald, among others. (Fact: Cronkite has now been retired for more years than he sat in that anchor chair.)

LIAR, LIAR (6 p.m. on Trio, ch. 260). In this Canadian film (not to be confused with the Jim Carrey comedy), an 11-year-old girl (Vanessa King) accuses her father (Art Hindle) of sexual abuse. The film shows the impact of the accusation as well as what years of apparently inappropriate contact between parent and child can do to a youngster whose sense of trust is forever shattered. —RR

PARTY OF FIVE (7 a.m. & 4 p.m. on Lifetime, ch. 252). One of the most critically acclaimed television dramas of the '90s premieres in syndication on Lifetime tonight. The series, which returns for a fifth season on Fox this fall, focuses on the lives of five siblings determined to stay together after the tragic death of their parents. Although Five got off to a weak start, it has made stars of all of its lead players, including Matthew Fox, Scott Wolf, Neve Campbell, Lacy Chabert and Jennifer Love Hewitt. Lifetime will air reruns weekdays at these times.

COOLEY HIGH (11 a.m. on Flix, ch. 929). Screenwriter Eric Monte wrote this semi-autobiographical comedy about a group of inner-city teens in 1964 Chicago. The film chronicles the hopes and dreams of Cochise (Lawrence Hilton-Jacobs) and his buddies as they prepare to graduate from high school and face uncertain futures. There are plenty of laughs, great party scenes, car chases, witty dialogue and one thumpin' soundtrack. It's a piece of nostalgia that doesn't get too sappy. Glynn Turman and Garrett Morris co-star.

ELLEN (3 p.m. & 3:30 p.m. on Lifetime, ch. 252). The beginning of the end for Ellen on ABC happened when the lead character came out of the closet just as DeGeneres did in real life. The show then became more issue-oriented and less funny when Ellen took on a lover. These reruns will harken back to the show's early, more generic episodes, when the show was all about Ellen, a single working gal hanging out with her friends in Los Angeles. And in the beginning, there were lots of laughs. Lifetime will air back-to-back episodes each weeknight at these times and on Saturday and Sunday at 10 a.m.

BIOGRAPHY (5 p.m. on A&E, ch. 240; repeats 4 hours later). "Mike Wallace: TV's Grand Inquisitor" looks at the veteran newsman whose career has spanned nearly five decades. There are interviews with Walter Cronkite and several of Wallace's 60 Minutes colleagues, with whom Wallace admits he doesn't always see eye to eye. It should be fun to see someone who has shown the harsh spotlight on so many other people be center stage himself. —MT

TODAY'S SD® BEST BETS

ANY DAY NOW (6 p.m. on Lifetime, ch. 252). The self-proclaimed network for women gets into the original primetime series game in a major way tonight, with a drama and a pair of comedies debuting. Any Day Now is an hour drama, starring Annie Potts (Designing Women) and Lorraine Toussaint as best friends of different races (Potts is white, Toussaint black) and different approaches to life. Potts is a harried homemaker with kids. Toussaint is a single attorney. Yet they've been the greatest of pals since they were kids growing up in the 1960s' South, and we're treated to frequent flashbacks of the civil rights movement as seen through their young eyes.

JOHN FOGERTY: AN IN THE SPOTLIGHT SPECIAL (6:30 p.m. on PBS, ch. 294). After years of having his great Creedence Clearwater Revival material held up in litigation, songwriter extraordinaire Fogerty is back doing the hits he made famous between 1968 and 1972. If you didn't catch Fogerty on tour this summer, here he is singing classics like "Born on the Bayou." Nobody can belt 'em out quite like Fogerty.

MAGGIE (7 p.m. on Lifetime, ch. 252). This original comedy, debuting tonight, stars Ann Cusack as a wife and mother studying to be a veterinarian. But after turning 40, she has your basic midlife crisis, having fantasies about actor Jack Wagner (go figure) and realizing she may be falling for her boss.

OH BABY (7:30 p.m. on Lifetime, ch. 252). The adorable Cynthia Stevenson (Hope & Gloria, The Player) and Joanna Gleason (Love and War) co-star in the third of Lifetime's premiering original series. Stevenson is Tracy, a single career woman who decides to have a baby through artificial insemination and chronicle her experience on video. Meanwhile, she bonds endlessly with co-worker Charlotte (Gleason), a single mother of two. —RR

THE AMERICANIZATION OF EMILY (1 p.m. on TCM, ch. 221). World War II was going so well for confirmed coward James Garner: easy duty behind the lines in England, nice English girlfriend (Julie Andrews), plenty of chocolate. Next thing you know, though, he's the fall guy in a moronic PR scheme to make sure "the first dead American on Omaha Beach is a sailor." Paddy Chayevsky's wickedly funny script may be 34 years old, but it has lost none of its sting.

FRONTIER: LEGENDS OF THE OLD NORTHWEST (6 p.m. on The History Channel, ch. 241; repeats 4 hours later). The American Revolution in the forbidding forests that later became the states of Indiana and Illinois was a sideshow, but it was not without its heroes. This hour, entitled "Long Knives," recounts the exploits of George Rogers Clark, the Virginian who won this vast territory for the United States, beating not only English Redcoats and scalp-hunting Indians but also some very long odds.

THE SECRET OF STONEHENGE (6 p.m. on The Learning Channel, ch. 246; repeats 3 hours later). The puzzling rockpile on England's Salisbury Plain has been teasing archaeologists for as long as there have been archaeologists. Nowadays, we know Stonehenge was built not in the Age of King Arthur but in the Age of the Pyramids. But what was its purpose? A calendar, say some; an observatory, say others. This hour suggests that it may have been a temple built for sun-worship ceremonies that also honored the dead.

THE MYSTERY OF MARS (7 p.m. on The Learning Channel, ch. 246; repeats 3 hours later). Mars isn't our nearest planetary neighbor (Venus is), but if there is life elsewhere in our solar system, it is probably on the Red Planet. Renaissance astronomers thought the "canals" of Mars really had water in them; unmanned probes from Earth (like the 1997 Pathfinder mission) have proved them right, sort of: Mars did have extensive water, and may still, below its inhospitable surface. This hour recalls the history of Mars exploration and ponders a question out of science fiction: Was life on Mars intelligent? Has it survived? —AD

TODAY'S SD® BEST BETS

WHEN WE WERE KINGS (4:30 p.m. on The Movie Channel, ch. 940). A dynamic, superlative, nostalgic feature-length documentary from 1996 that deservedly won an Oscar for filmmaker Leon Gast, who had been pushing for more than 20 years to turn his footage from the 1974 Rumble in the Jungle heavyweight title fight between Muhammad Ali and George Foreman into a film. The result is a revelation, an entertaining reminder of the charismatic magic exuded by Ali in his prime as he performed the rope-a-dope on Foreman to steal the championship away in Zaire.

BIOGRAPHY (5 p.m. on A&E, ch. 240; repeats 4 hours later). The name Helen Thomas probably doesn't mean much to you. But in the world of political journalism, she is a god. She was, in many ways, primarily responsible for turning the John F. Kennedy presidency into Camelot through her words and observations, becoming the ranking expert nationally on Jackie, John-John and Caroline, making the press room coffee every morning and called upon by JFK to end his press conferences with "Thank you, Mr. President." Then Thomas, as a wire service White House reporter, stuck around to cover the Johnson, Nixon, Ford, Carter, Reagan, Bush and Clinton administrations. This hour makes Thomas the story, at last.

REAL HISTORY (6 p.m. on The Learning Channel, ch. 246; repeats 3 hours later). This hour, "Puzzles of the Past: History's Greatest Disasters," postulates on Biblical catastrophes and how state-of-the-art dating techniques now allow us to gauge the apocalyptic disasters that have befallen the planet over the eons with greater accuracy. At least, so we think. Of course, when you get right down to it, who really knows if it was an asteroid that wiped out the dinosaurs through the subsequent massive flood? Let's face it: Without any dinosaur witnesses to discuss it, we're all just guessing. —RR

GOOD WILL HUNTING (premiering on DIRECT TICKET Pay-Per-View). Gus Van Sant's follow-up to To Die For has the director again dealing with the subject he does best: troubled youth. Actually, this widely praised (and Oscar-laden) town-vs.-gown drama from 1997 is less My Own Private Cambridge than it is a Rocky movie, albeit one set in a mathematics lab, where a hero from the wrong side of Scollay Square (Matt Damon) finds pride and redemption, thanks to a good woman (Minnie Driver) and a kindly trainer—er, psychologist (Robin Williams in the Burgess Meredith role).

TUCKER: THE MAN AND HIS DREAM (3 p.m. on Showtime, ch. 920). Hollywood maverick Francis Ford Coppola directed this underrated 1988 biography of auto-industry maverick Preston Tucker. The 1946 Tucker was quite a car: disc brakes, padded dash, shatterproof glass, twin carburetors, dual exhaust—and 20 (count 'em!) miles to the gallon. It just wasn't the car Detroit wanted to build in the years after WWII. That doesn't stop Tucker (memorably played by Jeff Bridges) from taking on not only the Big 3 but also a sleazy U.S. senator (Lloyd Bridges). Who wins? Well, how many Tuckers do you see on the road these days?

THE THREE MUSKETEERS (6 p.m. on The History Channel, ch. 241; repeats 4 hours later). Richard Lester's slam-bang retelling of the Dumas fils swashbuckler doesn't take itself seriously for a moment. Just enjoy it, for there is much to savor, including Charlton Heston's Cardinal Richelieu, Michael York's D'Artagnan—and the performance of her career from Raquel Welch. —AD

FAST, CHEAP AND OUT OF CONTROL (premiering on DIRECT TICKET Pay-Per-View). Erol Morris makes documentaries like no one else. If you've seen The Thin Blue Line (which helped free a man wrongly convicted of murder) or A Brief History of Time (Stephen Hawking explains the universe from his wheelchair), you know that he's open to recreating events and other techniques that documentary purists disdain. His latest, about a quartet of men with unusual professions, will enchant fans but may pull in a few unwary converts as well. I've already set my VCR for the first showing. (Check the on-screen guide for show times.)

VERTIGO (5 p.m. on Encore 4-Mysteries, ch. 234). Oh, don't you just love that All-American guy Jimmy Stewart? Here, he falls in love with another man's wife and then, when he thinks she has died in a fall from a church tower, he falls in love all over again with a woman who is a dead ringer (no pun intended) for her. Only Hitchcock could turn one of our most lovable screen icons into a neurotic fool for love.

THE RAT PACK (6 p.m. on HBO, ch. 910). Frank, Dino, Sammy and their pallies live on in this HBO original film. It did start production well before Sinatra died in May, but HBO has undoubtedly reaped a bonanza of extra publicity in the wake of the Chairman's passing. Miki Turner goes behind the scenes on page 20. —TW

WILD DISCOVERY (5 p.m. on Discovery Channel, ch. 245; repeats 4 hours later). Forget the latest When Flying Squirrels Attack, Part IV tripe on Fox. Discovery offers raw nature documentaries with real class, with shows like this premiere episode, "The Savage Season." In northern Botswana, the hyenas are giving Freddy Krueger and Jason a run for their machetes, making nearly 70 percent of all kills. For those of you Botswana-challenged, that's many more than the cheetahs, wild dogs, lions and jackals. This special chronicles the hyneas' rivalry with those other beasts during the annual zebra migration and the plains antelope calving season. The title refers to the fierce battles waged by these creatures during this most bloody time of the year.

THE BABY DANCE (6 p.m. on Showtime, ch. 920). Laura Dern doesn't get mad. She just tries harder. The enchanting star, who should have earned an Oscar nomination for her role in Citizen Ruth over the likes of some less-engaging performances in 1996, has decided to tackle a similar role in an effort to do it better. This Showtime original pairs Dern, as Wanda LaFauve, with Richard Lineback as a couple low on money and high on children (a fifth is on the way). That's where Stockard Channing and Peter Riegert come in. The couple, anxious to adopt, decides Dern's latest pregnancy is the perfect opportunity after Wanda answers their ad seeking a healthy baby. All is well...for a while. Dern never misses an opportunity to impress in films as diverse as Smooth Talk, Wild at Heart and Rambling Rose (for which she earned an Oscar nomination). Miki Turner has more details on this Showtime original on page 12. —CM

TODAY'S SD® BEST BETS

THE THORN BIRDS (8:30 a.m. on Encore 2-Love Stories, ch. 232). Here's the landmark 1983 miniseries in its gorgeous, 8½-hour entirety, and this exhausting version of Colleen McCullough's potboiler is still watchable. In case you forgot, Richard Chamberlain stars as a Roman Catholic priest who has this little problem with his vow of celibacy; Rachel Ward plays the problem. Supporting stars Richard Kiley and Jean Simmons won Emmys, and everyone (except Ward) won a coveted Golden Globe.

NEVER SO FEW (9 a.m. on TNT, ch. 212). Action and romance on the Burma front in WWII. This 1959 outing is not the best Burma movie ever made, nor is it the best movie John Sturges ever made. But the action never flags, and the cast is stupendous: Frank Sinatra, Peter Lawford, Steve McQueen, Charles Bronson, Richard Johnson, Paul Henreid, Brian Donlevy and (the ever-underappreciated) Gina Lollobrigida.

THE MALTESE FALCON (5 p.m. on TCM, ch. 221). John Huston's 1941 adaptation of the Dashiell Hammett murder classic is most assuredly "the stuff dreams are made of." It's also one of the most stunning directorial debuts of all time, with Huston taking a book that had been filmed twice before (both appallingly) and transforming it into one of the greatest private-eye pictures ever made. With Mary Astor, Peter Lorre, Elijah Cook Jr., Ward Bond and the redoubtable Sydney Greenstreet, making his screen debut at the tender age of 62.

NFL FOOTBALL: GREEN BAY AT DENVER (5 p.m. on ABC, chs. 295 & 296). In preseason, the teams get used to new plays and new players. So do the viewers at home. Start getting used to earlier start times for MNF, and Boomer Esiason, who replaces Giff in the booth with Dan and Al.

PAPER MOON (6:55 p.m. on Encore, ch. 230). Peter Bogdanovich has always aspired to the mantle of his idol, Orson Welles. This 1973 charmer about a father-and-daughter pair of Depression-era con artists (Ryan O'Neal and his real-life daughter, Oscar winner Tatum) is not only the best thing Bogdanovich ever did, it is also a movie that Welles could not have directed on the best day of his life. —AD

TODAY'S SD® BEST BETS

LITTLE LEAGUE WORLD SERIES (11 a.m. & 5 p.m. on ESPN2, ch. 208). Here's live coverage from Williamsport, Pennsylvania, of the annual competition among the young baseball elite, leading up to the championship game on Thursday. Things aren't as bad for America's pint-sized ballplayers as they once were. It got embarrassing when we got beat regularly by Taiwan and the Philippines. But we've been doing better lately. Thank goodness. Those 22-1 games were getting depressing.

ONE-ON-ONE WITH DAVID FROST—GEORGE BUSH: A PRESIDENT'S STORY (6 p.m. on A&E, ch. 240; repeats 4 hours later). This is Bush's opportunity to present to the public the autobiography he has never written, and he is smartly doing it with the legendary Frost, an interviewer's interviewer and the man who conducted the famed post-Watergate chats with Richard Nixon. The two-hour program is both a biography and a memoir of Bush's presidency, including footage of an interview Frost conducted with Bush just 10 days after the Persian Gulf War—arguably Bush's greatest moment.

AFI—100 YEARS 100 MOVIES (7 p.m. & 8 p.m. on TNT, ch. 212). In tonight's episode of the series spun off from the June CBS special, we take some "Fantastic Flights." This isn't Top Gun footage, but more along the lines of Disney animation or the timeless comedies of Charlie Chaplin and the Marx Bothers.

CHASING AMY (7 p.m. on Starz!, ch. 225). Kevin Smith, the maverick director who made 1994's Clerks a cult independent hit on a budget of a mere $24,000, took a step toward the big time with this 1997 romantic comedy. Mike Clark has the details on page 6. —RR

TODAY'S SD® BEST BETS

BIOGRAPHY (5 p.m. on A&E, ch. 240; repeats 4 hours later). Tonight's entry is "The Man Who Hunted Nazis." Yes, Tom? Um, who is Simon Wiesenthal? Right! Joking aside, this man's life is serious business, starting with his internment in a Nazi death camp, where on three occasions he was stripped naked and stood before an open pit of corpses, expecting to be shot. His skill at painting signs and placards probably saved his life. Wiesenthal chose not to put the horror of that experience behind him, but to devote his life to bringing Nazi war criminals to justice.

REBECCA (5 p.m. on Encore 4-Mysteries, ch. 234). Quick, name the only Alfred Hitchcock film which won the Oscar for Best Picture. It's this one, his 1940 American debut, an adaptation of the Daphne du Maurier tale of the woman who was a tough act to follow. Encore 4 has another Hitch on its schedule tonight: PSYCHO (7:15 p.m.) the story of a boy and his mother and the woman who almost comes between them. It earned Hitchcock an Oscar nomination, but he lost to Billy Wilder, for The Apartment.

THE WARRIORS (5 p.m. on Encore 5-Action, ch. 235). In 1979, gang movies were a brief rage in Hollywood, and this was the best of the lot. Walter Hill's edgy chase drama starts with a frightening premise: The gangs of New York have assembled in a Bronx stadium to decide how they're going to divvy up the city. When the respected organizer of the meeting is shot, the Warriors, a Coney Island-based gang, are wrongly fingered for the murder, and they must fight their way through the city back to their home base. The violence is pretty tame by today's standards; it's the intensity that will have your stomach tied in knots.

MAGNIFICENT JOURNEYS (6 p.m. on PBS, ch. 294; repeats 7 hours later). A new travel miniseries (continuing over the next two Wednesdays) debuts with "From Venice to the Nile." If your summer vacation destination was a bit more prosaic than floating down the Grand Canal, visiting Mount Vesuvius or exploring Egypt, you can still make the trip. Future programs will explore the South Pacific, the Caribbean and Colorado. —TW

MONTEREY POP (3:35 p.m. on Encore 6-True Stories/Drama, ch. 236). Remember the Summer of Love? San Francisco, 1967? This is the soundtrack. Monterey Pop, which has footage from seven different directors, is—in all honesty—an indifferently made movie, but you cannot beat the music. Monterey was the rock festival that made icons out of the Jefferson Airplane and Big Brother and the Holding Company, of Otis Redding and Jimi Hendrix. Simon and Garfunkel sing "Feelin' Groovy," and Pete Townshend of The Who smashes his guitar. Janis Joplin's rendition of Big Mama Thornton's "Ball and Chain" and Jimi's version of "Wild Thing" are as mesmerizing today as they were in 1967.

ON THE TOWN (5 p.m. on TCM, ch. 221). The town is New York, New York (where "the Bronx is up and the Battery's down" and "the people ride in a hole in a ground"), and the plot (such as it is) deals with three sailors (Gene Kelly, Frank Sinatra and Jules Munshin) on a 24-hour shore leave. What ensues is movie-musical heaven, featuring the behind-the-scenes talents of Arthur Freed, Stanley Donen, Leonard Bernstein, Betty Comden and Adolph Green, Roger Edens and Jerome Robbins. If this 1949 masterpiece isn't the best film musical ever made, it's certainly in the Final Four.

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL: ATLANTA AT ST. LOUIS (5:05 p.m. on TBS, ch. 259). How many homers will Cardinal Slambino Mark McGwire have coming into this four-game set with Greg Maddux & Co.? And if he doesn't break the home run record, there's this one: The NL record for bases on balls in a season is 148 (by Eddie Stanky of the '45 Dodgers). McGwire is currently on pace to become the first Major Leaguer ever to have more than 300 walks and strikeouts combined in one season. When this guy hits a single, it's a mistake. —AD

TODAY'S SD® BEST BETS

PALMETTO (premiering on DIRECT TICKET Pay-Per-View). Woody Harrelson is caught among two gorgeous women and a teenager in a tale of kidnapping, extortion and murder. This 1998 flick costars the exquisite Elisabeth Shue (Leaving Las Vegas), Gina Gershon (Bound) and Chloe Sevigny (The Last Days of Disco). Harrelson is played for a sucker by the women in a phony kidnapping plot. The talent of the cast and Volker Schlondorff's sure direction make this worth a look.

ALEXANDER NEVSKY (2:30 p.m. on Bravo, ch. 238). People think that the only movies Uncle Ray digs are those starring Jerry Lewis or members of the Rat Pack. Not true. Exhibit A: this 1938 historical drama from Russian director Sergei Eisenstein. True, it does not feature Jerry yelling, "Hey laaaaaady!" or Frank and Dino dueting. But it has a very cool battle scene on an icy lake, plus a great musical score by Prokofiev.

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER (5 p.m. on AMC, ch. 220). There's no class-conscious, star-crossed love story at the heart of this 1958 recounting of the Titanic disaster, only a straight-ahead, moving account of the sinking. It's a British film shot in black and white that stands tall as a devastating memoir of the unthinkable. The cast has no big names but is effective nonetheless.

L.A. DETECTIVES (6 p.m. on A&E, ch. 240; repeats 4 hours later). This ninth installment of the documentary series begins with an undercover narcotics officer attempting to bust a crack cocaine/methamphetamine ring. Then the burglary/theft/assault unit investigates a report that a 25-year-old man tried to get a 15-year-old girl out of school by posing as her father. Later, a spousal abuse report brings charges of terrorist threats against a husband, leading to an attempted SWAT team arrest. This show is like Cops on adrenaline. —RR

MIGHTY APHRODITE (3 p.m. on TNT, ch. 212). Woody Allen's 1995 musings on adopted children and the power of love features something never before seen in a Woody Allen movie: a wise-cracking Greek chorus. It also features a bawdy, hilarious, Oscar-winning performance from Paul Sorvino's little daughter, Mira.

SOME LIKE IT HOT (5 p.m. on TCM, ch. 221). "Well, nobody's perfect!" says Joe E. Brown in the punchline to this gender-bending 1959 comedy from genius Billy Wilder. He's wrong: Marilyn Monroe (in the performance of her career) certainly is. And so's this movie.

TOOTSIE (7:30 p.m. on TCM, ch. 221). Who says the American people have bad taste? For years, this uproarious 1982 Sydney Pollack-directed romp was the highest-grossing comedy in Hollywood history. Lately, it has the added cachet of being one of just 10 comedies named to AFI's list of the 100 best American movies. Dustin Hoffman stars as an actor who's so difficult to work with that the only work he can get is on a soap opera—as a supporting actress. —AD

TODAY'S SD® BEST BETS

SECRETS & LIES (2:30 p.m. on HBO3, ch. 912). Writer-director Mike Leigh's unforgettable 1996 drama concerns a woman (Oscar-nominated Brenda Blethyn) who is reunited with a daughter she had given up as a newborn over 20 years earlier. It's the stuff of soap opera, but in the hands of Leigh and his talented cast, it's a richly drawn drama of the emotional damage–intentional and otherwise–family members can inflict on one another.

RISKY BUSINESS (6 p.m. on TNT, ch. 212). Here it is, the teen comedy that turned Tom Cruise into a household name and turned dancing around in your underwear into a national fad. Made in 1983, the film overcame the limitations of its genre thanks to Cruise's charisma and his boiling chemistry with Rebecca De Mornay. The plot finds Cruise playing a Chicago teenager who cuts loose and parties when his folks go out of town. After smashing the family Porsche, he finds the need to raise a lot of money in a hurry. Enter De Mornay as a hooker named Lana. Don't miss the very memorable train scene.

SHE'S GOTTA HAVE IT (6:45 p.m. on the Independent Film Channel, ch. 239). Spike Lee's first feature, from 1986, is a spicy little story that centers on an adventurous young woman (Tracy Camilla Johns) whose main goal in life is to be sexually free. She winds up having relationships with three men at once (one of whom, Mars Blackmon, is played by Lee himself), and all of the men long to be the only love in her life. Fat chance. A terrific first effort by the controversial director. —RR

WILLY WONKA AND THE CHOCOLATE FACTORY (11 a.m. on Flix, ch. 929). The adventures and misadventures of a kid in a chocolate factory are tastefully done in Mel Stuart's version of Roald Dahl's book, Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. Gene Wilder is just right as the tour guide who stumbles into some chocolate messes along the way. Also stars Jack Albertson, Peter Ostrum, Roy Kinnear and Aubrey Woods. A sticky sweet family treat.

BIOGRAPHY (5 p.m. on A&E, ch. 240; repeats 4 hours later). In the 51 years he has been married, Prince Philip has generally been perceived as nothing more than that rather boorish-looking man routinely trailing his wife, Queen Elizabeth II, at public appearances. But the Duke of Edinburgh does have an interesting background. Born into Greek royalty, Philip's family lived more like paupers. At age 8, he was sent to school in England. Ten years later he met his future wife (a distant cousin) while enrolled in Britain's Naval College. Authors Sarah Bradford, Barbara Cartland and close associates and family members are interviewed.

A LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN (5 p.m. on Encore, ch. 230). Geena Davis, Madonna, Rosie O'Donnell and Lori Petty star in this inspirational Penny Marshall film loosely based on the exploits of the All-American Girls Baseball League. Formed during WWII, these women took to the fields not so much to prove they could be as good as men at the national pastime, but for their love of competition. Tom Hanks is brilliant as their coach, a boozing ex-ballplayer who finds that coaching women is a bitter fastball to swallow.

HOW TO SUCCEED IN BUSINESS WITHOUT REALLY TRYING (8 p.m. on TCM, ch. 221). An engaging and funny film about an ambitious window washer (Robert Morse) who worms his way into the executive wash room with a how-to book and some slick maneuvering. Adapted from the Broadway musical, which was successfully revived last year with Matthew Broderick, this version suffers little from the transition to the big screen. Morse is wonderful and perfectly suited for the role. Michele Lee, Rudy Vallee and Robert Q. Lewis lend support. —MT

New Poetry Contest $48,000.00 in Prizes

The National Library of Poetry to award 250 total prizes to amateur poets in coming months

Owings Mills, Maryland – The National Library of Poetry has just announced that $48,000.00 in prizes will be awarded over the next 12 months in the brand new North American Open Amateur Poetry Contest. The contest is open to everyone and entry is free.

"We're especially looking for poems from new or unpublished poets," indicated Howard Ely, spokesperson for The National Library of Poetry. "We have a ten year history of awarding large prizes to talented poets who have never before won any type of writing competition."

Possible Publication

Many submitted poems will also be considered for inclusion in one of The National Library of Poetry's forthcoming hardbound anthologies. Previous anthologies published by the organization have included On the Threshold of a Dream, Days of Future's Past, Of Diamonds and Rust, and Moments More to Go, among others.

"Our anthologies routinely sell out because they are truly enjoyable reading, and they are also a sought-after sourcebook for poetic talent," added Mr. Ely.

How To Enter

Anyone may enter the competition simply by sending in ONLY ONE original poem, any subject, any style, to:

The National Library of Poetry
Suite A1361
1 Poetry Plaza
Owings Mills, MD 21117-6282

Or enter online at www.poetry.com

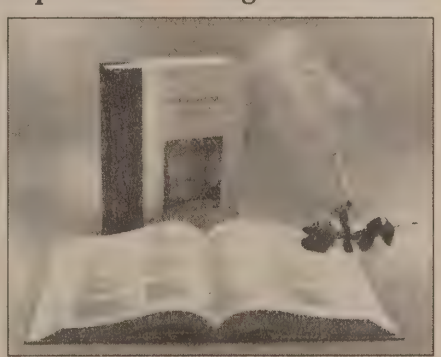
The poem should be no more than 20 lines, and the poet's name and address must appear on the top of the page. "All poets who enter will receive a response concerning their artistry, usually within seven weeks," indicated Mr. Ely.

World's Largest Poetry Organization

Having awarded over $150,000.00 in prizes to poets worldwide in recent years, The National Library of Poetry, founded in 1982 to promote the artistic accomplishments of contemporary poets, is the largest organization of its kind in the world. Anthologies published by the organization have featured poems by more than 100,000 poets.



The National Library of Poetry publishes the work of amateur poets in colorful hardbound anthologies like The Coming of Dawn*, pictured above. Each volume features poetry by a diverse mix of poets from all over the world.*

"We're always looking for new poetic talent," said Mr. Ely. "I hope you urge your readers to enter the contest."

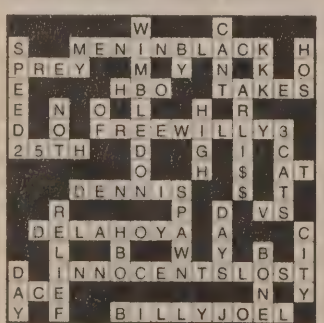
June's Crossword Puzzle Solution—



The answers to August's Crossword Puzzle found on page 31 will appear in the October 1998 issue.

Show Me a Sign

When you have a movie in your pay-per-view lineup that will run all day, why don't you let people know ahead of time before they order it, by a symbol or something?

D. Shupp
Reno, NV

Satellite DIRECT is working to incorporate a symbol for all-day ticket films in the daily Pay-Per-View listings. In the meantime, use the on-screen guide to determine if the movie you are ordering will be shown all day. It will be designated on the screen before you finish the order.—Ed.

The Case of the Missing Channels

I just subscribed to Satellite DIRECT with a three-year subscription. I now have my first issue, and I am very disappointed that you do not have TBN included in your grid. That is the main reason I purchased your guide. What are your chances of adding TBN?

Jimmy Stewart
via Internet

I would like to know why the following channels are not listed in [Satellite DIRECT]: 228, Starz!2-West; 231, Encore-West; 237, Encore-WAM!. When going through the channels, I get frustrated that I cannot find the movies listed for these channels. So when will you start to list these channels?

Linda Dixon
West Valley City, UT

TBN and Encore-WAM!, along with many other stations, are listed in the Channel Extra section following the daily grids and before the Movies section. Due to space restrictions, Satellite DIRECT can't list all of the stations offered in the main grids. Turn to page 280 in this issue for the start of Channel Extra. As for Starz!2-West and Encore-West, we don't have enough room to print these stations. But they have the exact same schedules as the east feeds of Starz!2 and Encore, with a three-hour delay.—Ed.

Bravo?

Your guide is great, but I have two requests that I think will improve it: 1. The movie House of Games, shown on Bravo on June 6, 1998, is listed with the MPAA rating "R." Bravo showed this movie as rated PG, edited for TV. I know you have no control over which version the providers show, but I think you should tell your viewers which version they will see. 2. I miss the section you removed some months ago showing all the specials by type (sports, history, etc.). Please bring it back.

Gary
via Internet

1. Because Bravo considers itself a basic station, it tries to keep its programming "family friendly" and thus edits some content from the films it shows. Satellite DIRECT provides information on all movies as they were originally shown. 2. We are bringing back the information on specials/variety programs in our September issue.

Consumer Rights

I'm suggesting you check with PrimeTime 24 and the Satellite Broadcasting and Communications Association regarding rights of subscribers to receive local networks. I think you may have missed an important step [Satellite DIRECT, "DSS PLUS," June 1998, page 28] in explaining the right to demand a signal check to confirm the "clear picture quality" over an outdoor antenna, if a homeowner is challenged by a local network affiliate. It's important to confirm that topography, terrain, airport flight paths, etc., may often interfere with over-the-air signals, and these indicators/problems are to be judged on "a case-by-case" basis. Unfortunately, the consumer must pay for this test, but the test is to be done (if requested) prior to disconnecting the subscriber from PT 24. It's my understanding from previous conversations with SBCA and PT 24 staff that the consumer does have certain rights and he/she can challenge an affiliate's "right" to disconnect.

One reader had trouble finding Babylon 5 (with Tracy Scoggins).

Who's Responsible?

The schedule for Babylon 5 is in error in Satellite DIRECT and the [onscreen] program guide. I understand a programmer can change its programming schedule at the last minute. When this happens, Satellite DIRECT is in error through no fault of theirs. But the [onscreen] guide can and should be changed. My question is, who is responsible for the onscreen program guide?

Paul Engler
Pleasant Valley, NY
via Internet

You should address concerns about the accuracy of the onscreen guide to DIRECTV at (800) DIRECTV.—Ed.
